Note to the Secretary-General

Replacement of a Member of the UN Committee of Experts on Public Administration ✓

I would like to inform you that Mr. Wang Xiaochu (China) wishes to withdraw his nomination as a member of the Committee of Experts on Public Administration (CEPA), due to heavy domestic responsibility. The Secretariat was notified of the above on 12 April 2009.

The Committee members are appointed by the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) upon their nomination by the Secretary-General, as outlined in the annex of E/RES/2001/45, (Annex 1). The Committee reports to ECOSOC on the governance and public administration dimensions of economic and social development. Although the experts are appointed in their personal capacity, the Committee's membership is drawn from fields related to public administration and development with a consideration for experience in research and practice. In addition, the membership should reflect geographical and gender balance.

Following consultation with the Permanent Mission of the People's Republic of China to the United Nations, we have identified Mr. Hao Bin, as the replacement candidate for the term 2010 to 2013 (biography attached as Annex 2).

I submit this nomination for your approval before seeking ECOSOC's endorsement.

Annex

Group of Experts on the United Nations Programme in Public Administration and Finance

1. The Group of Experts on the United Nations Programme in Public Administration and Finance shall be renamed the Committee of Experts on Public Administration and shall continue to be a subsidiary body of the Economic and Social Council, without change in its mandate.

2. The Committee shall comprise twenty-four experts, who will serve in their personal capacity. The experts shall be nominated by the Secretary-General, in consultation with member States, and approved by the Economic and Social Council. The membership will be drawn from the interrelated fields of public economics, public administration and public finance, and will reflect an adequate geographical and gender balance. The term of office of members shall be four years.

3. The Committee shall meet biennially for a period not exceeding ten working days.

4. The Economic and Social Council should provide guidance on an appropriate work programme for the Committee. The Committee shall submit its report directly to the Council at its substantive session. The report should include the proposals of the Committee on its work programme, for examination and approval by the Council.

5. In disseminating information on the work of the Committee, the United Nations Online Network in Public Administration and Finance should be fully utilized.

2001/45. Restructuring and revitalization of the Group of Experts on the United Nations Programme in Public Administration and Finance

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling General Assembly resolutions 50/225 of 19 April 1996 and 53/201 of 15 December 1998 on public administration and development,

Recognizing that efficient, effective and transparent public administration, at both the national and international levels, has a pivotal role to play in the implementation of the key objectives of the United Nations Millennium Declaration,<sup>1</sup> and in that context stressing the need to strengthen national public-sector administrative and managerial capacity-building, in particular in developing countries and countries with economies in transition,

Recalling General Assembly resolutions 50/227 of 24 May 1996 and 52/12 B of 19 December 1997 on the restructuring and revitalization of the United Nations in the economic, social and related fields,

Recalling also its resolutions 1998/46 of 31 July 1998 and 1999/51 of 29 July 1999 on further measures for the restructuring and revitalization of the United Nations in the economic, social and related fields,

Reaffirming its decision 2000/231 of 27 July 2000, by which it endorsed the recommendations contained in the report of the Secretary-General on the work of the Group of Experts
