Dear Mr. Amano,

I refer to my letter dated 1 August 2013, regarding the invitation to the Secretary-General to attend the opening of the fifty-seventh regular session of the General Conference of the International Atomic Energy Agency, to be held in Vienna on 16 September 2013.

Unfortunately, I regret to inform you that Ms. Angela Kane, High Representative for Disarmament Affairs, will no longer be able to represent the Secretary-General at this session, owing to unforeseen changes in her schedule. However, I am pleased to inform you that the Secretary-General has designated Mr. Yury Fedotov, Director-General of the United Nations Office at Vienna and Executive Director of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime at Vienna, to represent him at this important event and deliver a message to participants on his behalf. The office of Mr. Fedotov will be in contact with your office to discuss the details of his participation.

I wish to take this opportunity to convey the best wishes of the Secretary-General for a successful conference.

Yours sincerely,

(13-05266)
I refer to your note dated 1 August 2013 in which you requested that I attend the fifty-seventh regular session of the International Atomic Energy Agency General Conference (16-20 September 2013) and deliver a message on behalf of the Secretary-General. In light of the urgent circumstances pertaining to the current phase of the work of the Mission to Investigate Allegations of the Use of Chemical Weapons in the Syrian Arab Republic, I will be unable to travel to Vienna at that time.

Accordingly, I recommend that Mr. Thomas Markram, Chief of the Weapons of Mass Destruction Branch (Nuclear Weapons), attend the General Conference and deliver the message of the Secretary-General.
