PROTOCOL OF AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF RWANDA AND THE RWANDESE PATRIOTIC FRONT ON THE RULE OF LAW

PREAMBLE:

The Government of the Republic of Rwanda and the Rwandese Patriotic Front,

Reaffirming that the Rule of Law, the principle of the establishment of which was agreed upon by the signatories of the present Protocol of Agreement, in accordance with Article V of the N'sele Agreement, as amended in Gbadolite, on the 16th of September, 1991 and in Arusha on the 12th of July, 1992, shall characterize the political life in our country;

Considering that the Rule of Law implies that nobody, including the authorities, is above the law and that the laws must respect the fundamental rights of the citizens;

Reaffirming that the Rule of Law does not mean merely a formal legality which assures regularity and consistency in the achievement and enforcement of democratic order, and which is first and foremost and fundamentally characterised by justice based on the recognition and full acceptance of the supreme value of the human personality and guaranteed by institutions providing a framework for its fullest expression;

 Convinced that the Rule of Law:

- is the best guarantee of national unity, the respect of the fundamental freedoms and rights of the individual;
  - is a concrete manifestation of democracy;

- hinges on National Unity, Democracy, Pluralism and Respect for human rights;

Have agreed as follows:

CHAPTER I. NATIONAL UNITY

Article 1: National unity must be based on equality of all citizens before the law, equal opportunities in all fields including the economic field and respect for fundamental rights as stipulated, notably, in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and in the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights.

Article 2: National unity implies that the Rwandese people, as constituent elements of the Rwandese nation, are one and indivisible. It also implies the necessity to fight all obstacles to national unity, notably, ethnicism, regionalism, integrism and intolerance which subordinate the national interest to ethnic, regional, religious and personal interest.

Article 3: National unity entails the rejection of all exclusions and any form of discrimination based notably, on ethnicity, region, sex and religion. It also entails that all citizens have equal opportunity of access to all the political, economic and other advantages, which access must be guaranteed by the State.

Article 4: The two parties acknowledge that the national unity of the people of Rwanda cannot be achieved without a definitive solution to the problem of Rwandese refugees. They recognize that the return of the Rwandese refugees to their country is an inalienable right and represents a factor of peace, unity and national reconciliation. They undertake not to hinder the free exercise of this right by the refugees.

CHAPTER II: DEMOCRACY

ARTICLE 5: Democracy is founded on the idea that sovereignty belongs to the people. It is expressed, notably, through regular, free, transparent and fair elections. Popular representation must be the authentic expression of the will of citizens.

ARTICLE 6: The two parties accept the universality as well as the implications of the following fundamental principles of democracy:

- sovereignty of the people;
- government based on the consent of the people expressed through regular, free, transparent and fair elections;
- separation of the legislative, the executive and the judiciary powers;
- independence of the Judiciary;
- guarantee for the fundamental rights of the individual as provided for in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights as well as in the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights, among others, freedom of speech, enterprise and of political, social and economic association;
- laws and regulations based on the respect of fundamental human rights;
- equality before the law;
- respect of laws and regulations by all;

- Constitution which respects the principles enunciated above, organises the State powers and defines the powers, and limitations of the institutions of the Republic ;
- multipartism, social and economic pluralism.

ARTICLE 7: The two parties recognize that multipartism entails the legitimate existence of a democratic opposition and consider, as legitimate, the aspiration of any Rwandese citizen to accede to power through democratic process.

ARTICLE 8: The two parties resolutely reject and undertake to fight:

- political ideologies based on ethnicity, region, religion and intolerance which subordinate national interest to the ethnic, regional, religious or personal interest;
- any form of coup d'etat as being contrary to the democratic system as described above.

ARTICLE 9: In order to promote and consolidate the democratic system as described above, the two parties undertake to work for social, economic and cultural development of the country and to fight hunger, ignorance, poverty and disease.

ARTICLE 10: Elections shall be organised in such a way that transparency is guaranteed and fraud eliminated through the establishment of efficient supervision mechanisms including, if the need arises, enlisting the assistance of International Observers.

The prior and full explanation of the citizens' rights and civic duties including the issues at stake in the elections is their inalienable right as a way of avoiding any form of political manipulation.

ARTICLE 11: The two parties accept to promote, in national political life, a democratic culture based on the principles enunciated above.

ARTICLE 12: The broad-based transitional government provided for in Article V of the N'sele Agreement, as amended in Gbadolite, on 16th September, 1991 and in Arusha on 12th July, 1992, shall lead the country to a democratic system as defined above.

To this end, the two parties note that a political process has been initiated by the Rwandese people to ensure the progress of democracy and reaffirm the need to build together a society founded on the Rule of Law as stipulated in the present Protocol.

CHAPTER III: PLURALISM

ARTICLE 13: The two parties recognise that a democratic society is also founded on pluralism which is the expression of individual freedoms and must respect national unity and the fundamental rights of the citizen.

CHAPTER IV: HUMAN RIGHTS

ARTICLE 14: The two parties recognise the universal nature of human rights and should express concern when these rights are violated anywhere and by anybody.

They also recognise that the International Community would be justified in expressing concern in the event that these rights are violated by anybody on Rwandese territory. These rights should be guaranteed by the Constitution and the laws of the Republic of Rwanda.

ARTICLE 15: The two parties agree that a National Commission on Human Rights shall be established. This institution shall be independent and shall investigate human rights violations committed by anybody on Rwandese territory, in particular, by organs of the State and individuals in their capacity as agents of the State or of various organisations.

The investigation work of the Commission shall not be limited in time.

The Commission shall be provided with the necessary means, especially legal means, to efficiently accomplish its mission. It shall utilise its findings to:

- a) sensitize and educate the population about human rights;
- b) institute legal proceedings, where necessary.

ARTICLE 16: The two parties also agree to establish an International Commission of Enquiry to investigate human rights violations committed during the war.

CONCLUSION

ARTICLE 17: The two parties concur that national unity, democracy and peace are invaluable and solemnly undertake to do everything possible so as to preserve these values in the interest of the present and future Rwandese generations.

THE GOVERNMENT OF RWANDA AND

ON THE REPATRIATION OF RWANDESE REFUGEES
AND THE RESETTLEMENT OF DISPLACED PERSONS

The Government of the Republic of Rwanda on one hand, and the Rwandese Patriotic Front on the other;

Agree on the following provisions on the repatriation of Rwandese refugees and the resettlement of displaced persons.

CHAPTER I:     REPATRIATION OF RWANDESE REFUGEES

SECTION 1:     VOLUNTARY RETURN AND REPATRIATION

Sub-Section 1:   Basic Principles

Article 1: The return of Rwandese refugees to their country is an inalienable right and constitutes a factor of peace, national unity, and reconciliation.

Article 2: The return is an act of free will on the part of each refugee.

identification by the "Commission for Repatriation" so long as they are not currently occupied by individuals. The Commission shall be at liberty to explore and choose, without any restriction, resettlement sites throughout the national territory. The selection of sites, their occupation and farming shall take due consideration of the protection of endangered animal species, especially the mountain gorilla. Depending on the protection requirements and the planned farming development activities, the transfer of those species into compatible ecosystems is recommended.

Article 4: The right to property is a fundamental right for all the people of Rwanda. All refugees shall therefore have the right to repossess their property on return.

The two parties recommend, however, that in order to promote social harmony and national reconciliation, refugees who left the country more than 10 years ago should not reclaim their properties, which might have been occupied by other people. The Government shall compensate them by putting land at their disposal and shall help them to resettle.

As for estates which have been occupied by the Government, the returnee shall have the right for an equitable compensation by the Government.

Article 5: The repatriation exercise shall aim at achieving a harmonious and definitive integration.

Article 6: The repatriation process must mesh with the economic changes underway in the country.

Article 7: The principle of dual citizenship is hereby accepted. The laws governing the Rwandese citizenship shall be reviewed accordingly.

Sub-Section 2: The Beneficiaries of the Programme for the Return and Repatriation

Article 8: The Programme for the Return and the Repatriation shall be designed solely for Rwandese Refugees.

Shall qualify as a Rwandese refugee:

1. Anyone in possession of documents issued by the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR), testifying that the bearer is a Rwandese refugee;
2. Any Rwandese national who declares himself to be a Rwandese refugee, but who is not registered with the Office of the UNHCR.

Sub-Section 3: Repatriation Procedures

Article 9: Upon the recommendation of the Secretariat of State for Rehabilitation and Social Integration, the Broad-Based Transitional Government shall set up a Commission for Repatriation composed of Government, UNHCR, OAU and Refugee representatives.

Article 10: The Commission shall have, as a general mandate, to finalize and to implement a programme for the repatriation and reintegration of returnees.

The concrete missions of the Commission shall be as follows:

1. Conduct a socio-economic survey of refugees;
2. Organize a pre-repatriation census and registration of returnees;
3. Conduct an information and sensitization campaign both to the refugee community and the population within the country;

②

4. Identify settlement sites, supervise the distribution of plots and establishment of basic infrastructures such as Reception Centres, Health Centres, Educational Centres, etc.;
  5. Make travel arrangements for all returnees, where necessary, and arrangements for the transport of their property;
  6. Supervise all kinds of assistance for the returnees, such as food aid, farming tools, building materials, domestic items, seeds, etc.;

That Commission may set up Committees, where necessary, for the execution of some of its missions.

Article 11: For border crossings, a list of items subject to an export ban in the country of asylum and to an import ban in Rwanda shall be communicated in advance to refugees opting for repatriation.

Property and assets of returnees shall be exempted from all import duties and taxes, except for commercial goods.

The exchange regulations shall be communicated to returnees and facilitated by the appropriate authorities.

Customs formalities shall also be specified by the country of asylum and by Rwanda.

The Secretariat of State for Rehabilitation and Social Integration, in coordination with Immigration and Emigration Services, shall provide facilities at border posts and at the International airport, for the reception of returnees who shall have opted to go back home with their own means.

Returnees at that time shall be fully taken care of, including an initial free medical check-up.

Article 13: Returnees shall provisionally be accommodated in shelters built on plots allocated to them, but they shall rapidly be given a set of building materials to enable them to build their own houses and design them in accordance with model development schemes drawn up by the Commission for Repatriation.

Article 14: Upon their arrival in the country, repatriates shall each be paid a small amount of money to enable them to meet vital needs not catered for by the aid programme.

Article 15: With the assistance of the International Community, the Rwandese Government shall provide assistance to the returnees, in the following areas:

1. food aid;
2. domestic items;
3. farming tools;
4. building materials
5. health;
6. education.

The same assistance shall equally be provided to those returnees who may go back to their places of origin.

Article 16: Food aid shall be provided for a period of at least 15 months, after which conditions for the continued supply of that aid shall be reviewed.

Article 23: The Rwandese Government shall undertake negotiations with international funding institutions, within the framework of the Structural Adjustment Programme (SAP), so that the absorption capacities of the Public Sector could be enhanced.

There are certain sectors, however, which already hold out employment opportunities, such as Education, Health and the Judiciary.

A returnee who shall be integrated in the public sector shall be employed at the level to be determined on the basis of their qualification and professional experience.

Employment shall not be subjected to any precondition and criteria other than the age for employment and retirement.

Article 24: Returnees who have contributed to the Social Security in Rwanda may claim their dues, either for themselves or their beneficiaries.

During the first three years of service, with effect from the date of appointment, the returnees shall use those languages they are most familiar with, and shall take intensive French or Kinyarwanda courses. At the end of that period, consideration of this facility shall be re-examined in order to determine whether it would be maintained or not.

Government role in that field will be to reactivate support to existing firms, promote new investments and simplify formalities required to get started in the Private Sector. The Plan of Action shall also include a Guarantee Security Fund, so as to facilitate access to loans by returnees.

Article 28: The Commission for Repatriation shall develop settlement sites. The sites shall be provided with basic socio-economic infrastructures such as schools, Health Centres, water, access roads, etc.

The Housing scheme in these areas shall be modelled on the "village" grouped type of settlement to encourage the establishment of development centres in the rural area and break with the traditional scattered housing.

Article 29: The programme for the reintegration of returnees shall provide additional school facilities, by expanding existing schools or creating new infrastructures to accommodate the returnee children already at school or of school age.

Article 30: For purposes of ensuring a smooth integration into the educational system in the country, and avoiding that students interrupt their studies and suffer adverse effects, a number of measures shall be taken:

1. During the first year, education should be provided in the language used in the country of asylum.
2. Within the first three months, intensive French courses should be organised for teachers and students, especially for students in the senior level of primary school and for students in secondary schools and institutions of higher learning, from the anglophone countries.

Their certificates shall be recognized in accordance with the UNESCO system of equivalence of diplomas, certificates, etc.

However, special attention shall be given to the writing and reading of Kinyarwanda through additional remedial lessons, to enable new pupils and any other who might experience similar difficulties to catch up with those who are more conversant with the language.

Article 31: In accordance with the mandate entrusted to them by the Dar es Salaam Summit of 19th February, 1991, the UNHCR and the OAU shall organize, within six (6) months after the establishment of the Broad-Based Transitional Government, a Donors's Conference for the financing of projects earmarked in the Plan of Action for the Rwandese refugees.

In addition to other internal sources of funding, the Rwandese Government shall also rely on bilateral cooperation to support the Repatriation Programme.

Article 32: The implementation, at the political and administrative level, of the Repatriation Programme shall be supervised by the Secretariat of State for Rehabilitation and Social Integration.

For the technical implementation of the various components of the Repatriation Programme, the Government of Rwanda and the UNHCR shall preferably resort to those NGOs with an established reliability, taking also their respective specialization into account. As such, one or several NGO's shall undertake site development activities, building activities, and the distribution of food aid.

Sub-Section 7: Timetable for Repatriation

Article 33: All the returnees having the means to settle themselves without recourse to Government assistance may do so, soon after the signing of the Peace Agreement.

To that end, Rwandese Embassies shall issue travel documents to all Rwandese refugees who wish to go back to Rwanda.

REQUETE CONJOINTE DU GOUVERNEMENT RWANDAIS ET DU FRONT
PATRIOTIQUE RWANDAIS ADRESSEE AU SECRETAIRE GENERAL DES NATIONS UNIES RELATIVE A LA MISE EN PLACE D'UNE FORCE
INTERNATIONALE NEUTRE AU RWANDA.

-----

Le Gouvernement de la République Rwandaise et le Front Patriotique Rwandais voudraient porter à la connaissance du Secrétaire Général des Nations Unies qu'ils ont convenu au cours des présentes négociations de paix à Arusha, que la mise en oeuvre de l'Accord de Paix au Rwanda requiert le déploiement d'une Force Internationale Neutre aussitôt que l'Accord de Paix sera signé.

A cet effet, les deux parties en négociation ainsi que le Facilitateur ont demandé à l'Organisation de l'Unité Africaine et à l'Organisation des Nations Unies de mener des consultations pour déterminer les modalités de leur collaboration dans la mise en oeuvre de la Force Internationale Neutre.

Lors de la séance plénière du 6 juin 1993, le Facilitateur a informé les deux parties que le Secrétaire Général de l'OUA lui a communiqué que les consultations entre l'OUA et l'ONU ont conclu à ce que la responsabilité et le Commandement de la Force Internationale Neutre soient assumés par l'ONU.

Les deux parties se félicitent de cette conclusion et acceptent que la responsabilité et le Commandement de la Force Internationale Neutre soient assumés par l'ONU et lui assurent de leur entière collaboration.

Compte tenu de ce qui précède et en vue de permettre le déploiement de la Force Internationale Neutre aussitôt que l'Accord de Paix sera signé, les deux parties demandent au Secrétaire Général des Nations Unies d'envoyer dans les meilleurs délais, une mission de reconnaissance au Rwanda pour évaluer tous les besoins de la Force Internationale Neutre.

La mission de reconnaissance pourra également, dans le cadre de la préparation des opérations de désengagement des deux forces en conflit, procéder sur base de critères convenus entre les parties, à la démarcation des zones de rassemblement, à l'identification des lieux d'implantation des points de rassemblement et des points de cantonnement ainsi qu'à la détermination des paramètres de sécurité de la ville de Kigali dans le cadre de sa neutralisation pour abriter les institutions de la transition. Cette mission aura pour tâche également, l'estimation de la taille de la Force Internationale Neutre à déployer au Rwanda.

Les deux parties voudraient en outre suggérer que la Force Internationale Neutre soit déployée le plus rapidement possible après la signature de l'Accord de Paix. Il serait souhaitable d'envisager en attendant la constitution et le déploiement effectif de cette force, un prélèvement à titre provisoire, sur les différentes forces de maintien de la paix déployées ailleurs afin de permettre la mise en oeuvre rapide de l'Accord de Paix et notamment la mise en place du Gouvernement de Transition à Base Elargie en évitant ainsi des délais trop prolongés, susceptibles de porter préjudice au processus de paix.

Pour aider le Conseil de Sécurité des Nations Unies dans la définition du mandat de la Force Internationale Neutre, les deux parties proposent les missions suivantes à lui assigner:

A. Mission générale.

La Force Internationale Neutre contribuera à la mise en oeuvre de l'Accord de Paix, plus particulièrement en supervisant la mise en oeuvre du Protocole sur l'Armée Nationale, la Gendarmerie Nationale et les autres services de Sécurité ainsi qu'en fournissant toute forme d'assistance aux autorités et organes compétents.

A cet effet, elle remplira les missions suivantes:

B. Missions de sécurité.

1. Garantir la sécurité générale du pays et vérifier en particulier comment les autorités et les organes compétents assurent le maintien de l'ordre public.
2. Assurer la sécurité de la distribution des aides humanitaires.
3. Contribuer à assurer la sécurité de la population civile.
4. Contribuer à la recherche des caches d'armes et à la neutralisation des bandes armées à travers tout le pays.
5. Effectuer les opérations de déminage.
6. Contribuer à la récupération de toutes les armes distribuées à la population civile ou acquises illégalement par celle-ci.
7. Contrôler le respect par les deux parties des modalités de cessation définitive des hostilités telles que contenues dans l'Accord de Paix.

C. Missions de supervision du processus de formation de l'Armée Nationale.

1. Faire la démarcation des zones de rassemblement et procéder à l'identification des lieux d'implantation des points de rassemblement et des points de cantonnement.
  2. La Force Internationale Neutre sera responsable de la préparation des points de rassemblement et des points de cantonnement. Elle recevra et gérera tout le matériel ainsi que les moyens financiers requis pour accomplir cette tâche. Les camps militaires pourront servir comme points de rassemblement ou de cantonnement à condition que les deux parties en soient informées. Ces camps feront objet du contrôle de la Force Internationale Neutre et seront soumis aux conditions des autres points de rassemblement et de cantonnement.

3. Déterminer les paramètres de sécurité de la ville de Kigali dans le cadre de sa neutralisation.
4. Superviser:
  - les opérations de désengagement des forces, notamment le mouvement des troupes regagnant les points de rassemblement, et des militaires allant remettre les armes lourdes dans les points de cantonnement;
  - la transformation des camps militaires en points de rassemblement ou de cantonnement;
  - les vérifications consécutives à ces opérations.
5. S'assurer du respect des règles de discipline par les militaires à l'intérieur et en dehors des points de rassemblement.
6. Vérifier les inventaires des armements et munitions des deux parties ainsi que la séparation des armes lourdes et des armes légères.
7. Assurer la garde des points de cantonnement et participer à la garde des dépôts d'armes légères et leurs munitions dans les points de rassemblement.
8. Superviser l'opération d'identification du personnel militaire qui sera menée dans les divers points de rassemblement des troupes.
9. Superviser les opérations de ravitaillement des troupes dans les points de rassemblement, le ravitaillement se limitera aux produits non meurtriers.
10. Participer au programme de formation des membres des nouvelles Forces Armées et assurer la sécurité des centres d'instruction.
11. Superviser l'opération de démobilisation des militaires et gendarmes non retenus dans les nouvelles Forces Armées.
12. Faire une évaluation de la mise en oeuvre du processus de formation et faire des recommandations au Gouvernement de Transition à Base Elargie, au Haut Conseil de Commandement de l'Armée Nationale et au Conseil de Commandement de la Gendarmerie Nationale.

Les deux parties voudraient informer le Secrétaire Général des Nations Unies qu'elles adressent une copie de la présente requête au Facilitateur, Son Excellence le Président Ali Hassan MWINYI, Président de la République Unie de Tanzanie, au Président en exercice de l'Organisation de l'Unité Africaine ainsi qu'au Secrétaire Général de l'Organisation de l'Unité Africaine pour leur information.

Les deux parties saisissent cette occasion pour exprimer au Secrétaire Général des Nations Unies leur haute appréciation pour l'intérêt qu'il ne cesse de témoigner pour le bon aboutissement du processus de paix au Rwanda ainsi que pour la diligente attention qu'il voudra bien accorder à cette requête.
