MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS

19 January 2010

Your Excellency,

It is with deep regret that I have learnt of the disastrous earthquake in Port-au-Prince, Haiti that caused heavy loss of human lives and material damage, including the tragic death of Your Special Representative to Haiti, Hédi Annabi, his Deputy Luiz Carlos da Costa, Acting UN Police Commissioner in Haiti, Doug Coates and many other staff of the UN Stabilization Mission in Haiti (MINUSTAH).

On behalf of our Government and in my own name, I wish to extend to all the families of the deceased UN personnel our deepest condolences. We also hope that the wounds of the affected people in general will heal in the shortest time, with the help of the international community.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Hüseyin Özgürün
Minister of Foreign Affairs

H.E. Mr. Ban Ki-Moon
Secretary-General of the United Nations
New York.
