THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

11 July 2012

Dear Mr. President,

It was a great pleasure speaking to you on 27 June 2012, and I would like to extend to you once more my congratulations on becoming the first democratically-elected civilian President of the Arab Republic of Egypt.

As discussed, I would like to invite you to participate in the General Debate of the sixty-seventh session of the General Assembly in September 2012. Your role in this important event will present a pivotal opportunity for Egypt to serve as a model to others in the region in realizing their aspirations for the promotion of human rights, development and inclusiveness.

I look forward to working closely with you on a range of issues of interest to Egypt, the wider region and the international community.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Mohamed Morsy
President of the Arab Republic of Egypt
Cairo

Dear Mr. Pan

潘仁山会长，

I write to express my sincere appreciation for your kind letter wishing me a speedy recovery from my hand injury.

I am happy to report that I have fully recovered and your kind words remind me of the great support you provide to me and strengthen my resolve to exert my best efforts to serve the Organization.

Thank you again. I am grateful for your engagement with the United Nations.

Yours sincerely,

潘基文

Dear Mr. Nigam,

I am writing to thank you for your recent letter and for forwarding the Video Compact Discs (VCD) of my recent visit to Myanmar documented by Sky Net Television.

I would be grateful if you could kindly pass on my deepest appreciation to Mr. Kyaw Win for sending the VCDs, which will be a valuable addition to my collection. I look forward to viewing these with great interest.

Please allow me to reiterate my gratitude to you and your team for your steadfast efforts in facilitating the work of the United Nations in Myanmar, and I look forward to our continued close working relationship.

With my warmest regards,

Yours sincerely,

Ban Ki-moon
