Dear Marcus,

Further to my email of yesterday, I would like to get back to you re the luncheon invitation below.

I have just been informed the DSG will be on official travel at the end of January.

It would be greatly appreciated if you would kindly relay to Ambassador Quinlan the deep regrets of the Deputy Secretary-General.

With best wishes,
Tasa

Mr Jan Eliasson
UN Deputy Secretary General

Dear Jan Mr Eliasson

I wish to advise you that the Australian Minister for Foreign Affairs, the Hon Julie Bishop MP, will visit New York in late January 2014 - her first visit here since Australia assumed the G20 chairmanship for 2014 on 1 December this year.

Australia strongly supports close cooperation between the G20 and key international institutions, particularly the UN. We see Ms Bishop's visit as a valuable opportunity to engage with UN leaders about our G20 priorities and to discuss issues of relevance to the Secretary-General's participation at the G20 Leaders Summit in Brisbane on 15-16 November next year.

To this end, I would be honoured if you were able to attend a lunch with Ms Bishop and key UN leaders from 1:15-2:45pm on Friday, 24 January at 1 Beekman Place, Apartment 5A. My contact officer for this event is Marcus Lumb (212 351 6664, marcus.lumb@dfat.gov.au).

I hope you will be able to attend this lunch.
Yours sincerely

Best wishes for the season.

Gary Quinlan
