H. E. Mr. Ban Ki-moon

Secretary-General, United Nations
New York

Budapest, 17th February 2011

Excellency,

Allow me to take this opportunity to express my appreciation for the dedicated work of the UN personnel in the Sudan as well as in New York having contributed to the safe release of Mr. István Papp, a Hungarian staff member of UNAMID kidnapped in October 2010 in the Sudan.

Let me please hereby thank you for the responsible and determined manner in which You, Mr. Secretary-General and your colleagues acted in this sensitive and dangerous case, cooperating closely with the Sudanese and the Hungarian authorities.

I am looking forward to hosting you in Budapest in the near future and please accept the assurances of my highest consideration.

Yours sincerely,

Viktor Orbán
