THIS SUBJECT HAS BEEN EARLIER RAISED BY THE FC, TOO. MR. HEIN WAS OPTIMISTIC, THAT THE AUTHORITIES MIGHT AGREE TO OPEN THE WATER DISTRIBUTION. THEY NEED ALUMINIUM SULPHATE FOR THE FILTERS, WHICH THE HUMANITARIAN ORGANIZATIONS WOULD BE READY TO DELIVER AFTER THE AGREEMENT HAS BEEN REACHED. IN THIS RESPECT IT WOULD BE NECESSARY TO HAVE BUILDINGS MANAGEMENT CHECK THE WATER PIPES AND BLOCKED SEWAGE SYSTEM IN AMAHORO HQ BEFORE THE WATER STARTS RUNNING.

7. IN THE PREVAILING LACK OF WATER CONDITIONS IT IS SUGGESTED, THAT POSSIBILITIES FOR USING NAIROBI LAUNDRY SERVICES FOR TROOPS WOULD BE STUDIED.

1. The above named officers were promoted to the rank of Lt Col on 29 Dec 93. However, in view of our policy on promotion regarding personnel on peace-keeping duties outside Ghana, which do not permit them to put on their new ranks they are still wearing their former rank of a Major until they return to their home establishments at the end of their tour of duty.
2. However, with the metamorphosis of the UNAMIR operations, quite a number of officers and men have left the mission during the reduction to a residual Force level.
3. During the reorganization, the aforementioned officers have been identified as Deputy Chief of Operations (DCOO) and Sector Commander respectively, both jobs carry the rank of a Lt Col.
4. Consequently, I am please requesting that in order for the officers to benefit from this elevated appointments and also function effectively, the ban on the use of their new ranks be lifted to enable them enjoy the fruits of their labour.
5. I hope that this request will be viewed on its own merit and not as an attempt to give a preferential treatment to the officers in question or break an established regulation.

Rapport PDPL 36/1994
28 avril 1994

Le dossier rwandais et les critiques des anciens casques bleus belges vis-à-vis de l'autorité militaire; la situation en Yougoslavie et les relations entre l'ONU et l'OTAN: parmi les principaux éléments d'information retenus ce 28 avril 1994.

1. Rwanda: les anciens casques bleus belges accusent...

Polémique autour du dossier rwandais en Belgique: les paracommandos de Flawinne accusent, dans une lettre ouverte, le commandement militaire belge de "non assistance à personnes en danger, de manque d'esprit de corps et de doutes quant à la compétence de certains officiers en situation critique"...

Cette lettre a fait la "une" des médias belges d'autant plus que les compagnons des militaires assassinés au Rwanda ont fustigé "certains gradés belges qui se cachent derrière le drapeau bleu de l'ONU et ses règles d'engagement pour justifier leur incompétence et leur inaction".

Le Chef d'Etat-Major de l'armée belge ainsi que le Ministre de la défense ont d'ores et déjà réagi estimant que rien n'indique pour le moment qu'une faute de commandement ait été commise. Le Ministre de la défense attend également le rapport des Nations Unies pour la mi-mai. Il faut toutefois ajouter que l'aumônier des anciens casques bleus confirme certains dires des paracommandos de Flawinne en soulignant que d'autres soldats belges étaient à proximité du lieu du drame et qu'ils n'ont pu intervenir sur ordre de leurs supérieurs.

Quoi qu'il en soit le drame des casques bleus belges tués à Kigali, mais également l'ensemble de la situation au Rwanda, donnent lieu à de nombreux commentaires estimant a.e. plus que jamais nécessaire de créer une armée onusienne. C'est notamment l'avis exprimé par l'ONG belge Pax Christi Flandres qui estime que l'intérêt collectif doit primer sur les intérêts nationaux. C'est également l'avis du Prof. Eric David de l'Université libre de Bruxelles qui se pose la question de la faisabilité d'une légion de volontaires de la paix des Nations Unies.

La plupart des ONG soulignent également qu'il est indispensable de ne pas laisser tomber le Rwanda - pas plus que le Burundi. Nombreuses sont celles qui plaident pour un renforcement de la MINUAR. Quand à Médecins sans frontières Belgique, il n'a pas manqué de rappeler qu'une fois de plus la communauté internationale intervenant selon le principe de "deux poids deux mesures": qu'en est-il de l'attitude en Yougoslavie comparée avec celle au Rwanda et dans d'autres pays d'Afrique.

Cessez-le-feu généralement respecté

Rwanda : les paras de Flawinne accusent

Le cessez-le-feu déclaré par les rebelles du Front patriotique rwandais (FPR) était généralement respecté mardi malgré des tirs sporadiques dans la capitale, Kigali. Selon l'ONU, plus de 330.000 personnes se sont enfuies dans les pays voisins pour échapper à trois semaines de carnages qui auraient fait 100.000 morts.

Des responsables des Nations unies ont signalé des tirs à l'arme légère dans un secteur de Kigali tenu par le FPR. Seules des fusillades sporadiques ont entaché les 11 premières heures de la trêve unilatérale du FPR, qui a commencé lundi à minuit, heure belge. Selon Abdul Kabir, directeur exécutif de la Mission d'assistance de l'ONU pour le Rwanda (Minuar), le problème principal est qu'aucune partie n'a jusqu'ici accepté de cessez-le-feu déclaré par l'autre. Aussi continuent-ils à se tuer les uns sur les autres de temps en temps.

Les employés des organisations caritatives sont quant à eux sceptiques sur les chances d'une trêve durable. Ils insistent sur le risque de catastrophe humanitaire si la paix ne revient pas. Kigali, notamment, est menacé par des épidémies en raison des cadavres qui continuent de pourrir dans les rues...

En Belgique, les militaires du peloton Mortier du 2^e bataillon commandé de Flawinne — auquel appartiennent les dix Casques bleus belges tués au Rwanda — ont rédigé une « lettre ouverte à nos chefs » violente : Nous accusons le commandement de non-assistance à personne en danger, de manque d'esprit de corps, et nous mettons en doute la compétence de certains officiers en situation critique.

Les auteurs de la lettre fustigent notamment « certains grades », se demandant s'ils auront aujourd'hui le courage de regarder leurs mains ou continueront-ils à se cacher derrière le drapeau bleu de l'ONU et ses règles d'engagement pour justifier leur incompétence et leur inaction? Nous sommes tous des témoins, affirment encore les collègues des paras assassinés. Les radios du bataillon étant réglées sur la même fréquence, nous avons entendu... Nous aurions pu tenter quelque chose pour eux...

Réaction du lieutenant général Charlier, « patron » de l'armée : Aucun élément ne permet de croire que le commandement ait agi d'une quelconque façon à ses responsabilités. Les enquêtes en cours, indépendantes de l'autorité militaire (...) devront déterminer où se situent les responsabilités. (...) on peut aussi comprendre les sentiments qui animent ceux qui ont vécu de près les événements tragiques ayant conduit au massacre de leurs compagnons. On peut aussi comprendre leurs interrogations...

Au Burundi enfin, la situation était calme, mardi, à la suite de la tentative de coup d'État de lundi, mais quelques combats sporadiques étaient rapportés à Kamukaga dans le district nord de Bujumbura. (Riz, AFP et B.)

Explication à la Chambre

Un débat a eu lieu mercredi, à la Chambre, sur la mort de nos dix para-commandos. L'opposition libérale s'est étonnée que M. Claes n'ait pas présenté les troubles, en février, quand se produisirent deux assassinats politiques au moment même où notre ministre se trouvait à Kigali. M. Simonet a rappelé que, depuis quatre ans, la PRL condamnait la politique belge de soutien au régime Habyarimana, régime tout aussi tyrannique que celui du président Mobutu. M. Winkels, au nom d'Ecolo et d'Agalev, a dénoncé les trente années d'aveuglement des autorités belges et la responsabilité encore plus grande des autorités françaises.

Il a lu une lettre poignante d'un médecin rwandais écrasé par la tâche et selon lequel il y aurait 100.000 victimes rien que dans la préfecture de Butare. Et pour

M. Drupe, PRL, le fait d'avoir laissé sans aucune protection de nombreux Rwandais menacés, principalement des Tutsi, en n'évacuant guère que les « expatriés », a constitué une forme de ségrégation inacceptable.

Le ministre de la Défense nationale, Leo Delcroix, a répondu que la première tâche fut de sauver les Belges, mais que nos troupes avaient en fait réussi à évacuer des ressortissants de 24 nationalités, dont 150 Rwandais. On peut attendre pour la mi-mai les premiers résultats de l'enquête de l'Onc sur la mort de nos dix paras. Il est trop facile de dire que ceux-ci auraient dû utiliser la force pour se dégager, a ajouté M. Delcroix: « Sans doute auraient-ils été quand même tués et leur résistance aurait-elle alors provoqué beaucoup plus de victimes dans nos rangs; mais je comprends parfaitement la colère de leurs compagnons. »

SUMMARY

Quant à M. Claes, il a rappelé que, contrairement aux Français, nous n'avions pas maintenu de troupes au Rwanda. « C'est bien la preuve que nous ne soutenions pas le régime Habyarimana. » Personne ne pouvait prévoir l'incroyable déchaînement de violence auquel on a assisté. Quant au Burundi, la Belgique veut bien contribuer au désarmement de la population de Bujumbura en fournissant un important matériel, mais il faudrait aussi que l'on procède à une réforme dans l'armée de ce pays, composée quasi exclusivement de Tutsi.

Les combats à l'arme lourde, intenses durant la nuit de mardi à mercredi dans la capitale rwandaise, Kigali, semblaient se calmer mercredi après-midi. En matinée, un obus a explosé à 50 mètres du quartier général de l'ONU à Kigali et près d'un centre de personnes déplacées hier matin. L'obus a atterri sur un court de tennis situé près du stade Amahoro, une zone sous contrôle FPR (Front patriotique rwandais, rébellion de la minorité tutsie), où s'entassaient 5.000 personnes déplacées.

Pour sa part, le président du Mouvement républicain national pour la démocratie (MRND, au pouvoir au Rwanda) a affirmé mercredi sur la foi de témoignages de militaires, que le Premier ministre assassiné, Agathe Uwilingiyimana, avait eu « l'intention d'organiser un coup d'Etat contre le président - Juvénal Habyarimana - mort le 6 avril, lorsque son avion a été « abattu » à Kigali. M^{me} Uwilingiyimana - et avec elle dix Casques bleus belges - a été tuée le lendemain par des éléments de la garde présidentielle. Je ne cherche pas à justifier un assassinat, mais j'essaie de trouver les raisons qui ont poussé les militaires à faire cela (abattre le Premier ministre), a déclaré Mathew Nkurunziza. Deux jours avant, le Premier ministre avait convoqué quelques officiers supérieurs et leur avait dit son intention d'organiser un coup contre le président, a-t-il insisté.

Le président du MRND a ensuite nié l'existence de milices organisées et armées par son parti, accusées d'avoir pris une part active dans les massacres qui ont suivi la mort du président. Pour lui, les massacres sont la conséquence de « la colère populaire », qu'il est « très difficile de contrôler ». « Condamnant fermement les massacres » et « déterminé à en poursuivre les auteurs », il accuse le FPR d'avoir déclenché les combats avant le début des tueries entre Hutus et Tutsis.

UN MESSAGE BOULEVERSAANT

Mardi, depuis l'hôtel des Mille Collines, au cœur de Kigali, l'une des 500 personnes réfugiées dans cet établissement a adressé un message désespéré à un ami rwandais en Belgique, en l'occurrence M. Gasana Ndohaba, responsable en Belgique du Comité pour le respect des droits de l'homme et de la démocratie au Rwanda (CRDDR). En voici les extraits les plus significatifs.

Cet après-midi nous sommes encore reliés à l'extérieur. Ici c'est la tragédie. Le génocide continue. A Kigali les tueurs cherchent ceux qui se sont cachés et les tuent (...) Plus de 250.000 personnes ont été tuées. (...)

Nous, à l'hôtel nous sommes 500. Il y a six soldats de la MINUAR qui nous gardent mais plusieurs tentatives sont faites pour nous assassiner (...) Nous sommes depuis une semaine sans eau, sans nourriture. Les blessés ici ne sont pas soignés, les femmes accouchent. Que le diable fasse quelque chose au plus vite. Criez au monde notre tragédie. Nous voulons vivre, aller à vivre... (AFP, Ritr et Belga.)

La colère des survivants du peloton Mortier soulève de graves questions Rwanda : non-assistance lors du massacre ?

Des graves questions se posent tandis que les réactions se multiplient après la « lettre ouverte à nos chefs » du « peloton Mortier » de Fwinyine, auquel appartenaient nos dix Casques bleus massacrés à Kigali. Les compagnons d'armes et les familles des victimes accusent le commandement de non-assistance à personnes en danger et de manque d'apprêt de corps et mettent en doute la compétence de certains officiers.

Dès mardi, le général Chertier répondait qu'aucun élément ne permet de croire que le commandement ait failli.

Puis hier, un communiqué de l'auteur général près la Cour militaire rappelait que l'auteur Peeters, présent à Kigali au moment du drame, s'est informé de la répartition des escortes de sécurité entre le GG de la Minuar (dont aucun Belge ne faisait partie) et le commandement du contingent belge. Il a recueilli les premiers témoignages ainsi que la transcription des communications radio, précises le communiqué, ajoutant que dès le 20 avril, l'auteur militaire de Bruxelles a été chargé de poursuivre l'enquête du chef d'accusation par défaut de prévoyance ou de précaution dans le personnel belge de la Minuar rentré au pays. L'auteur a aussi été chargé d'entendre les rédacteurs de la « lettre ouverte ». Les résultats de l'enquête seront publiés, ajoute le communiqué. Éléments.

On se demande déjà pourquoi avoir attendu la « lettre » pour interroger qu'il les hommes du peloton Mortier à Fwinyine.

À TROIS CENTS MÈTRES...

L'escorte du Premier ministre rwandais entrerait-elle dans le cadre du mandat ONU ? Le syndicat CGSP-militaires demande si ce mandat excluait explicitement l'usage de la force hors des cas de légitime défense, et si le gouvernement belge l'avait accepté sans réserve.

Qui a donné l'ordre de remettre les armes ? Pourquoi n'avoir pas porté secours ? Dans ce cadre, la CGSP demande qui en a décidé ainsi : des autorités civiles ou militaires de l'ONU, des autorités politiques belges à Bruxelles ou à l'ambassade de Kigali, l'état-major en Belgique ou le commandement belge à Kigali ?

On a tout entendu à la radio, disent les paras. Ils sont restés bloqués. Les officiers responsables ont dit d'attendre. Presque une heure que ça a duré. On leur a donné l'ordre de rendre leurs armes. Ils les ont rendues. Deux ou trois des dix hommes ont été tués devant la résidence du Premier ministre. Les autres ont été emmenés et torturés plus tard encore au camp de la garde présidentielle, alors qu'à trois cents mètres de la maison du Premier ministre, il y avait un peloton de la 16^e compagnie qui était en alerte et qui a demandé à intervenir. On leur a dit non.

Selon l'aumônier de Fwinyine, c'est le lieutenant Lotin qui, devant l'urgence, aurait décidé de rendre les armes, après son appel radio de 9 heures du matin quand il signalait que son groupe avait des problèmes et qu'il attendait les ordres du colonel Dewaux. À aucun moment il ne lui a été donné un ordre clair. Il n'a jamais été question de leur envoyer du renfort, confirme-t-il. Hier depuis Nairobi, le président du MRND (le parti au pouvoir) Matthew Ndirumutse, à l'encontre de tous les témoignages, a prétendu que nos Casques bleus n'auraient pas été abattus après avoir été désarmés. Il soutient que tout a commencé après qu'un lieutenant belge ait tiré sur un caporal rwandais.

Pour le ministre de la Défense Leo Delcroix, les premières conclusions de l'enquête de l'ONU

seront connues à la mi-mai, mais sur base de premiers éléments, il n'y a pas eu d'erreur de responsabilité au niveau du commandement dit-il, le Lt Lotin et le commandement de la Minuar ont agi correctement. Pour Leo Delcroix, une intervention armée devait prendre en compte la menace qui aurait pesé sur deux autres groupes de Casques bleus (15 à l'aéroport, 7 dans un autre quartier) également encerclés.

Le ministre ajoute qu'un renfort d'une quinzaine d'hommes avait été mobilisé pour porter assistance aux paras encerclés, mais qu'un responsable de l'armée rwandaise et un officier de liaison rwandais avaient garanti qu'ils seraient conduits à leur caserne s'ils déposaient leurs armes. On sait ce qu'il en fut...

L'armée peu bavarde sur la tuerie des Casques bleus à Kigali

Le massacre des paras belges a débuté devant un observateur ONU

Un ancien du 15^e Wing disait, de l'opération au Rwanda, qu'elle avait été la plus rough qu'il ait connue en dix-neuf ans, la plus « vache » en langage d'aviateurs. Sans un mandat ONU qui puisse être rapidement modifié, sans armement et sans moyens de protection, je ne laisserai pas repartir de troupes, a déclaré hier le général Charlier, chef d'état-major général.

Les Affaires étrangères ont annoncé hier aussi que la Belgique ne prendra plus contact avec le Rwanda tant que les accusations sur une implication belge dans l'attentat présidentiel ne seront pas retirées.

Les chefs militaires restent peu bavards sur les circonstances de la tuerie de nos dix Casques bleus au matin du 7 avril au camp Kigali. Pour le général Charlier, aucune faute commise, ni au niveau des ordres, ni à celui de l'exécution. Il n'y a pas eu de décision consciente de ne pas intervenir, ajoute-t-il.

Tout a été fait pour les libérer, comme l'avait proposé l'officier rwandais, dès le moment où nous savions qu'ils étaient prisonniers, affirme le colonel Joseph Dewez, le dernier à avoir communiqué par radio avec le lieutenant Lotin.

Message radio de Thierry Lotin le 7 avril à 8 h 45, encadré par la garde présidentielle. L'officier rwandais leur propose de se rendre et de les ramener dans un quartier de la ville. Dewez: Je lui dis: « Essayez à l'officine, peignez pour quitter la zone ». Puis on a pris contact avec le centre opérationnel des FAR, avec le chef des observateurs ONU, avec l'officier de liaison de la gendarmerie rwandaise. Deux ou trois minutes plus tard, nouveau message de Thierry Lotin. Les Rwandais veulent que les dix Belges rendent les armes. Deux ou trois sont déjà désarmés et au sol. Alors, j'ai dit que la meilleure chose à faire était de rendre les armes, ajoute le colonel Dewez.

Très bref et dernier message à 9 h 05, cette fois sur le réseau Motorola des observateurs de l'ONU. Thierry Lotin dit ne pas savoir où ils ont été amenés (NDLR: au camp Kigali). On te basse deux de ses hommes dehors. On va se faire lyncher, dit-il. Moi, j'ai eu le sentiment qu'ils allaient passer... disons... un séle quart d'heure. Jamais je n'ai osé imaginer... admet le colonel. Nouveaux contacts en insistant sur l'urgence de les récupérer. En vain. Depuis, je dors mal, comme tous, ajoute-t-il.

UN CAPITAINE TOGOLAIS

D'autres unités belges, dans le secteur depuis plusieurs heures, n'ont pas pu faire la jonction avec les dix du peloton Mortier, à cause des barrages. Dewez: Nous étions dispersés dans la ville, avec des hommes bloqués dans leurs cantonnements. Nous avions trois blindés en état de marche à l'aéroport: impossible de tenter une action offensive sans risquer la vie des dix, de quinze autres Casques bleus désarmés près de l'aéroport, et des expatriés.

Ordre du général Charlier de ne rien dire de plus.

Mais puisqu'on sait que le dernier message est passé dans le Motorola d'un observateur ONU, c'est donc qu'il s'en trouvait un tout près. Il s'agit, selon nos informations, d'un capitaine togolais, qui a été entendu par les enquêteurs onusiens et dont la déclaration est à l'auditorat militaire à Bruxelles.

Ce capitaine a assisté à l'attaque des dix Belges de l'escorte du Premier ministre assassiné et des Casques bleus ghanéens qui gardaient la résidence. Eux ont été désarmés puis évacués, sains et saufs. L'observateur ONU était aussi au camp Kigali près de Thierry Lotin quand le massacre des Belges a commencé. Qu'a-t-il vu? Qu'a-t-il transmis? Black out. On ne lui reprocherait aucun acte « positif », ni la non-assistance, estiment qu'il n'a rien pu faire.

INTERNATIONAL HERALD TRIBUNE - 2 May 1994

Make the Rwandan Killers' Bosses Halt This Genocide

By Molly J. Burkhalter

WASHINGTON — The magnitude of the slaughter in Rwanda is so great that the international community has thrown up its hands and averted its eyes. The UN Security Council unanimously decided to reduce its peacekeeping force to a skeleton presence. Most foreigners have fled the country. Incidentally, the government of France has received a designation of the self-proclaimed "government" of Rwanda. This tacit acceptance of one of the most extraordinary atrocities of our decade is immoral, illegal and cynical.

The systematic extermination of the minority Tutsi population in Rwanda is genocide, and the International Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide requires something better.

An appropriate and widely realistic international approach to this tragedy begins by recognizing that the violence that has engulfed Rwanda since the plane crash that killed President Juvénal Habyarimana on April 6 was planned and predictable. Rwandan human rights activists and opposition political figures had been under attack for months by hard-line around General Habyarimana. Within hours of his assassination — most likely at the hands of extremists within his own government — barrages went up around Kigali, and targeted political and ethnic assassinations by the army and militia began.

Another sign of the carnage to come was the creation of the militia by Rwanda's ruling National Revolutionary Movement for Progress and the closely affiliated Coalition for the Defense of the Republic (CDR). Last year the army handed out guns to thousands of young adolescents, with orders to kill Tutsis.

Official radio broadcasts throughout the country called upon listeners to attack political dissidents and all Tutsis. In recent weeks, broadcasts have contained such lurid incitements as "The graves are only half full! Who will help us fill them?"

Clear evidence of the direct responsibility of the Rwandan authorities may be seen in Butare Province in southern Rwanda. Despite the massacres in Kigali in the weeks after the assassination of the president, Butare remained calm for two weeks. The person responsible for maintaining order and discouraging communal violence was the province's governor, a member of the political opposition and the only Tutsi governor in Rwanda.

On April 20, the Rwandan army replaced him with a hard-line military figure, and mass murder of Tutsis and opposition figures began that very day. Since then the political party militia, accompanied by the army, has carried out a frenzy of butchery that has continued day and night.

Priests who escaped to neighboring Burundi reported to Human Rights Watch that the militia and army attacked a group of 6,000 Tutsis who had taken refuge at the church of Cyindanda, of whom 200 survived.

Cherry from the diocese of Cyangugu report 4,000 murdered in the parish of Shangi, 2,000 at Mibirizi and 900 at Nkanka. In Gikongoro, between Butare and Cyangugu, about 4,000 were killed at the church of Kibeho.

Since Rwandan political and military figures deliberately launched these massacres and many others, they must be called upon to stop them.

Among those who have the power to halt the slaughter are Colonel Ntare, the military officer in charge during the first days of the massacre, Colonel Augustin Bizimungu, then minister of defense and now commander in chief of the Rwandan armed forces, Captain Pasquale Simbikangwa, who commands the militia, Colonel Ntandye, and Colonel Mpiranya, head of the army's presidential guard.

On April 22, the White House took the unusual step of issuing a statement identifying these individuals by name and calling upon them to "do everything in their power to end the violence immediately." The international community should add its voice to Washington's.

Heads of state around the world should denounce these individuals by name and call upon them to end the carnage or face an international tribunal.

France, in particular, has a responsibility to use its significant leverage with the Rwandan army to press it to call off the killings, since France has been its chief weapons supplier and military trainer in recent years.

And the United Nations Security Council should issue a resolution stating that a government which comes to power on the bodies of hundreds of thousands of Rwandans will have no place in the world community.

In addition, the United Nations should vigorously upgrade its diplomatic efforts in Rwanda by appointing a very high-level individual of the stature of Secretary-General Salim Salim of the Organization of African Unity to meet with the military high command and deliver a stern message about ending the killings.

The current United Nations envoy, the Cameroonian diplomat Jacques-Roger Bush-Buoh, has not had a visible presence in Rwanda and should be replaced.

Diplomatic efforts to achieve a cease-fire between the Rwandan Patriotic Front and the government, convened by President Ali Hassan Mwinyi of Tanzania, are valuable and should be supported. But a cease-fire between the warring parties is largely irrelevant to the mass slaughter of noncombatants being carried out throughout Rwanda — and far from the battlefield — by the army and the militia. The suppression of these army and militia attacks on hundreds of thousands of civilians should be the first priority of the negotiations.

Would this message be heeded? We believe so. The ramp government representing the Rwandan military clearly craves international acceptance and concrete support, as the visit of Jerome Bicamumpaka, the self-styled "foreign minister" of Rwanda, and Jean-Benoît Barayagwiza, a key figure in the CDR political party, to France's Ministry of Cooperation and the Elysée Palace indicates. The two have requested visas to present their case at the United Nations, as well.

The scope of the killings in Rwanda is so vast that the world has given up hope. But there are still priests, human rights activists and thousands of Tutsis under siege from marauding militia and army troops who can be saved. Now that the United Nations has largely abandoned its military presence in Rwanda, it is all the more incumbent upon the world community to upgrade its political efforts to pressure the Rwandan authorities to stop the genocide.

The writer, Washington director of Human Rights Watch, contributed this comment to the International Herald Tribune.

AAA. PLEASE FIND ATTACHED, THE INVENTORY REPORT OF MIS/EDP DEPARTMENT AS YOU REQUESTED. IT COMPRISES THE STATUS OF EQUIPMENT AND ACCESSORIES BEFORE AND AFTER THE EVACUATION FROM KIGALI.

BBB. THE BULK OF MISSING EQUIPMENT ARE LAPTOP COMPUTERS AND OTHER LIGHT ITEMS.

CCC. AS I HAVE ALREADY REPORTED TO YOU, VERBAL REPORTS SUGGEST THAT THE COMPUTER WAREHOUSE WAS LOOTED, WHICH ACCOUNTS FOR MOST OF THE OTHER MISSING EQUIPMENT. THE AREA IS NOT ACCESSIBLE AS YET TO VERIFY THIS INFORMATION. IT IS MY CONTENTION THAT SOME OF THESE MAY STILL BE IN THE WAREHOUSE. EQUIPMENT SUCH AS VOLTAGE STABILISERS, UPS'S AND LASER PRINTERS ARE RATHER HEAVY AND MAY NOT BE EASY TO LOOT.

DDD. ALTHOUGH MOST OF THE OFFICES WERE BROKEN INTO, THE NUMBER OF CPU'S, MONITOR'S, UPS'S AND PRINTERS LOST IN THESE OFFICES DO NOT EXCEED TWENTY EACH.

EEE. FINAL CATEGORY OF MISSING EQUIPMENT ARE THOSE DISTRIBUTED TO THE MILITARY SECTORS SCATTERED ALL OVER RWANDA. SOME OF THESE HAVE ALSO BEEN RETRIEVED BUT MAJORITY HAVE NOT YET BEEN LOCATED.

FFF. THIS REPORT GIVES AN ACCOUNT OF WHAT WAS PREVIOUSLY DISTRIBUTED, HELD IN STORE, OR WAS DEFECTIVE COMPARED WITH WHAT HAS BEEN RETRIEVED SO FAR.

STATEMENT BY THE AFRICAN GROUP TO THE UNITED NATIONS ON THE SITUATION IN RWANDA

The African Group at the United Nations met on 28 April, 1994 to review the situation in Rwanda, and to react to the decision of the Security Council Resolution 912 (1994) of April 22, 1994 to reduce the United Nations Assistance Mission for Rwanda (UNAMIR).

The African Group was thoroughly briefed by the African members of the Security Council, Djibouti, Nigeria and Rwanda on the deliberations which took place in the Council and which subsequently led to the adoption of resolution 912 (1994). The group was further guided by the Communique issued by the Central Organ of the OAU Mechanism for Conflict Prevention, Management and Resolution on 28th April, 1994. On the basis of the information provided, and subsequent discussion on the course of action to be undertaken, the African Group in full recognition of its moral and political duty to the people of Rwanda;

1. expresses its grave concern over the continuation of the hostilities, the unabated massacres of innocent people and the aggravation of the humanitarian crisis;
2. calls for the conclusion of an immediate ceasefire and halt to the massacres.
3. regrets the decision of the Council to drastically reduce the UNAMIR force in Rwanda at the very time when the situation has deteriorated;
4. Calls upon the United Nations to continue to work closely with the Organisation of African Unity and the facilitator (Tanzania), toward an early conclusion of a ceasefire agreement and the resumption of the Arusha Accord process;

5. Reaffirms, that the implementation of the Arusha Agreement of December 1993, constitutes the only basis for a lasting solution to the tragic situation in Rwanda;
6. Underlines that the tragedy in Rwanda requires decisive United Nations action. The Group expresses the hope that the Security Council will authorize the restoration to full strength and possible increase of UNAMIR, as soon as a ceasefire comes into force. The United Nations must remain credible in the eyes of the African people, and can only do so, if it treats with equal attention the different conflict situations in the world, without double standards.
7. Decides in the light of the urgency and importance of the matter, to establish a "Contact Group" composed of Egypt, Tanzania, Djibouti, Nigeria, Rwanda, Congo and the Organisation of African Unity Executive Secretariat, to follow closely the development of the crisis and to promote active UN involvement in its resolution.

(120 am)

Le Conseil de sécurité est atterré d'apprendre que le massacre de civils innocents à Kigali et dans d'autres régions du Rwanda se poursuit et que de nouvelles hécatombes seraient en préparation. Il partage la préoccupation exprimée par l'Organe central du Mécanisme de l'Organisation de l'unité africaine (OUA) pour la prévention, la gestion et le règlement des conflits, selon lequel le carnage et la tuerie systématique n'ont rien perdu de leur intensité. Il rappelle avoir déjà condamné cette tuerie dans sa résolution 912 (1994) du 21 avril 1994.

Des attaques contre des civils sans défense ont été lancées dans tous le pays, et en particulier dans des zones contrôlées par des membres ou des partisans des forces armées du Gouvernement intérimaire du Rwanda. Le Conseil de sécurité exige que le Gouvernement intérimaire du Rwanda et le Front patriotique rwandais prennent des mesures effectives pour empêcher toute nouvelle attaque contre les civils dans les zones qu'ils contrôlent. Il demande aux dirigeants des deux parties de condamner publiquement ces attaques et de s'engager à faire en sorte que les personnes qui les fomentent ou qui y participent soient poursuivies et punies.

Le Conseil de sécurité condamne toutes ces violations du droit international humanitaire au Rwanda, en particulier celles commises à l'encontre de la population civile, et rappelle que les personnes qui fomentent de tels actes ou qui y participent en portent individuellement la responsabilité. Dans ce contexte, il rappelle que l'élimination des membres d'un groupe ethnique avec l'intention de détruire ce groupe totalement ou partiellement constitue un crime qui tombe sous le coup du droit international.

Le Conseil de sécurité réitère la demande qu'il avait faite dans sa résolution 912 (1994), où il exigeait un cessez-le-feu et la cessation immédiate des hostilités entre les forces du Gouvernement intérimaire du Rwanda et celles du Front patriotique rwandais. Il rend hommage aux efforts de médiation que le Représentant spécial du Secrétaire général et le commandant de la Force de la Mission des Nations Unies pour l'assistance au Rwanda (MINUAR) font pour aboutir à ce résultat et il leur demande de poursuivre ces efforts en liaison avec les pays de la région et l'OUA. Il rend également hommage au courage et à la détermination avec lesquels le personnel de la MINUAR assure la protection des civils qui se sont réfugiés auprès de la Mission.

Le Conseil de sécurité salue les efforts qui ont été faits par des pays de la région, avec le concours de l'Organisation de l'unité africaine (OUA), pour mettre un terme aux combats et à la tuerie au Rwanda. Il rend hommage aussi aux efforts faits par les États, les organismes des Nations Unies et les organisations non gouvernementales pour apporter une aide humanitaire d'urgence à la malheureuse population rwandaise.

Le Conseil de sécurité est gravement préoccupé par la situation des milliers de réfugiés et de personnes déplacées qui ont été contraints de fuir les affrontements et les massacres au Rwanda.

Le Conseil de sécurité demande à tous les États d'aider le HCR et les autres organismes d'aide et de secours opérant dans la région à répondre d'urgence aux besoins humanitaires au Rwanda et dans les États frontaliers. Le Conseil demande aux États frontaliers, travaillant avec l'OUA, d'apporter la protection voulue aux réfugiés et de faciliter l'acheminement des approvisionnements nécessaires pour répondre aux besoins des personnes déplacées au Rwanda.

Le Conseil de sécurité demande à toutes les parties rwandaises de garantir la protection des personnes déplacées et des réfugiés au Rwanda, ainsi que celle des réfugiés en dehors du Rwanda et d'assurer la sécurité des convois d'assistance humanitaire.

Le Conseil de sécurité souligne la nécessité urgente d'une action internationale coordonnée pour aider à instaurer la paix au Rwanda et pour alléger les souffrances de la population rwandaise. Il prie le Secrétaire général, agissant en consultation avec le Secrétaire général de l'OUA et les pays de la région, de prendre les mesures voulues pour que les efforts entrepris sur le plan international en vue d'améliorer la situation au Rwanda soient menés de façon efficace et coordonnée, ainsi que de veiller à ce que toutes les parties concernées soient tenues pleinement informées.

Le Conseil de sécurité souligne l'importance de l'aéroport de Kigali pour l'acheminement de secours internationaux au Rwanda, ainsi que pour le fonctionnement de la MINUAR. Il demande aux parties de faire en sorte que l'aéroport demeure constamment ouvert à ces fins.

Le Conseil de sécurité souligne qu'il importe de veiller à ce que la situation au Rwanda n'ait pas de répercussions fâcheuses sur la sécurité et la stabilité des pays voisins.

Le Conseil de sécurité met en garde contre le fait que la situation au Rwanda serait encore considérablement aggravée si l'une ou l'autre des parties devait avoir accès à des armes supplémentaires. Il demande instamment à tous les États de s'abstenir de fournir des armes ou une assistance militaire de quelque ordre que ce soit aux parties au conflit. Il se déclare prêt en principe à envisager sans tarder un embargo sur les armes au Rwanda.

Le Conseil de sécurité réaffirme son attachement à la préservation de l'unité et de l'intégrité territoriale du Rwanda. Il répète sa conviction que l'Accord de paix d'Arusha demeure le seul cadre viable pour la solution du conflit rwandais et doit servir de base à la paix, à l'unité nationale et à la réconciliation dans le pays. Il demande de nouveau aux parties de réitérer leur engagement à l'égard de cet accord.

Le Conseil de sécurité prie le Secrétaire général :

a) Agissant en consultation avec le Secrétaire général de l'OUA, de rendre compte des nouvelles initiatives qui pourraient être prises en vue d'aider à rétablir l'ordre au Rwanda et à assurer la sécurité des personnes déplacées;

MSF 2912-04

b) De s'employer, avec le HCR, l'OUA et les pays de la région, à prendre les mesures de diplomatie préventive qui pourront être nécessaires pour empêcher que la violence et les atrocités ne se propagent aux pays voisins;

c) De rechercher d'urgence les moyens d'apporter une assistance humanitaire aux réfugiés et aux personnes déplacées;

d) De consulter le Haut Commissariat des Nations Unies pour les réfugiés (HCR) au sujet des mesures à prendre pour apporter une assistance humanitaire à celles des personnes déplacées qui se trouvent massées le long des frontières avec la Tanzanie, l'Ouganda, le Zaïre et le Burundi;

e) De porter à sa connaissance toute information qu'il pourrait recevoir au sujet d'entrées d'armes au Rwanda et de consulter les pays de la région et l'OUA au sujet de la mise en application d'un embargo sur les armes à l'encontre du Rwanda;

f) De formuler des propositions relatives aux activités d'enquête à mener touchant les violations graves du droit international humanitaire qui auraient été commises au cours du conflit.

Le Conseil de sécurité déclare son intention d'examiner d'urgence la lettre du Secrétaire général en date du 29 avril 1994 et toutes autres recommandations que pourrait formuler le Secrétaire général.

Dear Mr. President,

I regret to have to inform you that the Force Commander of the United Nations Assistance Mission for Rwanda (UNAMIR) has reported a further deterioration of the situation in Kigali and other parts of Rwanda.

The capital city is effectively divided into sectors controlled by the Rwanda Government Forces (RGF) and the Rwandese Patriotic Front (RPF) respectively, with frequent exchanges of artillery and mortar fire between the two sides. UNAMIR reports strong evidence of preparations for further massacres of civilians in the city and there are several large concentrations of civilians who fear for their lives but enjoy little effective protection. Massacres continue on a large scale in the countryside, especially in the south.

A new complication is that in recent days both sides have begun to express lack of confidence in UNAMIR's impartiality and this is affecting their cooperation with my Special Representative and the Force Commander.

His Excellency
Mr. Colin R. Keating
President of the Security Council

These developments raise serious questions about the viability of the revised mandate which the Security Council gave to UNAMIR by resolution 912 on 21 April 1994. In particular, it has become clear that that mandate does not give UNAMIR the power to take effective action to halt the continuing massacres. At best it can provide limited protection to small groups of threatened persons in the city of Kigali and it would be unable to save them if a new wave of massacres were to start. According to some estimates, as many as 200,000 people may have died during the last three weeks. This humanitarian catastrophe is rightly a matter of growing anguish in Africa and the rest of the world and demands urgent action by the international community.

In considering what action should be taken, it has to be recognized that the disastrous incident of 6 April which caused the deaths of the Presidents of Rwanda and Burundi has had two consequences which require different responses from the international community. First, that incident sparked a resumption of fighting between the Rwanda Government Forces (RGF) and the Rwandese Patriotic Front (RPF). Secondly, it reawakened deep-rooted ethnic hatreds, which have plagued Rwanda in the past and which have again led to massacres of innocent civilians on a massive scale.

The revised mandate which the Security Council gave to UNAMIR in resolution 912 on 21 April is an adequate response to the first of these consequences. My Special Representative and the Force Commander have been making strenuous efforts to help the parties agree to a ceasefire and a return to implementation of the Arusha Accord. Those efforts have not yet succeeded but the present mandate and strength of UNAMIR are sufficient for them to continue.

The events of the last few days have confirmed, however, that UNAMIR's revised mandate is not one which enables it to bring the massacres under control. Some of these have been the work of uncontrolled military personnel but most of them have been perpetrated by armed groups of civilians taking advantage of the complete breakdown of law and order in Kigali and many other parts of Rwanda. It has become clear that the horrors for which they are responsible can be ended only if law and order is restored, a task which is far beyond UNAMIR's present capacity.

In these circumstances, I urge the Security Council to reexamine the decisions which it took in resolution 912 and to consider again what action, including forceful action, it could take, or could authorize Member States to take, in order to restore law and order and end the massacres. In making this recommendation, I am of course aware that such action would require a commitment of human and material resources on a scale which Member States have so far proved reluctant to contemplate. But I am convinced that the scale of human suffering in Rwanda and its implications for the stability of neighbouring countries leave the Security Council with no alternative but to examine this possibility.

I should be grateful if you would bring this matter to the attention of the members of the Security Council.

Please accept, Mr. President, the assurances of my highest consideration.

FIELD OPERATIONS DIVISION
LCS INSTRUCTION 01/94

General Instructions Governing the Communications with the Logistics and Communications Section/ FOD

GENERAL

1. This has reference to the exchange of written communications between Field Missions and the Logistics and Communications Section (LCS), FOD/DPKO. An earlier instruction issued by the former Director, FOD delineates the type of issues typically referred to his office and those managed directly by the Sections (see Attachment A).

2. In order to provide some guidance with regard to the areas of responsibility and corresponding subjects that shall be referred to LCS for action or information, please refer to the sample format of the Logistics Report (LOGREP) contained in Annex B of the FOD Instruction 02/94 relating to the LOGREP. The headings listed may serve as a general guideline in this regard.

3. Based on current practice various instruments of communications exist between field missions and LCS/FOD. The following paragraphs briefly list these instruments and provide general guidance in which manner each of these instruments shall be used henceforth.

FACSIMILE AND CABLE TRAFFIC

4. Generally, all new requests for action will be forwarded to LCS/FOD by means of separate facsimile message or by cable. However, there are some exceptions to this rule, principally for routine action requests, which are not urgent and may be included in the Administrative Report. These exceptions are outlined in paragraph 5 below.

ADMINISTRATIVE REPORT

5. The Administrative Reports (AR) will serve primarily as a transmittal mechanism for documents, equipment and supplies forwarded. This, however, applies only to matters falling only under the purview of LCS/FOD. It must be noted that in line with the stipulations of paragraph 4 above, requests for action shall no longer be included in the AR. The only exception to this rule are routine and non-urgent action requests such as most property survey cases (SB cases) and some local procurement cases to be approved by the Headquarters

MSF 2963-04 4/14

Committee on Contracts. These may be included in the AR as done in the past. The foregoing also applies for those requisitions not urgently required, which are prepared on the standard requisition form (PT 72). Upon introduction of the REALITY office automation software, these will be transmitted electronically through the EDI requisition transfer process.

LOGISTICS REPORT

6. Generally, all inquiries on earlier requests for action shall be followed up through the Logistic Report (LOGREP). Also, developments which may have a critical impact on the support operation shall be mentioned in the LOGREP. Detailed instructions relating to the LOGREP are given in the FOD Instruction 02/94 which is enclosed. It is important to note that usually no request for action should be initiated in the LOGREP. However, in cases of smaller missions exceptions to this rule may be permissible, if jointly agreed upon.

STATUS REPORT

7. Field missions are invited to submit on a monthly basis pertinent status information on their administrative and logistic support operation. This may obviate the need for certain ad-hoc inquiries. A number of topics for which monthly statistics are deemed useful are being discussed. In this connection please note that LCS/FOD is in the process of building an information data-base on field missions. Guidelines to include, inter alia, an appropriate reporting format will be issued in due course.

EMAIL

8. With the increasing number of field missions that have access to Headquarters via E-mail the need to establish general guidelines for the exchange of messages through this new communication channel is recognized. In general terms messages so transmitted shall not contain requests for action unless cleared through the established approval channels. Detailed instructions governing E-mail correspondence will be circulated in due course.

1994 0043-04 5/14

April 8, 1994
GC/CMAFIELD OPERATIONS DIVISION
LCS INSTRUCTION 02/94*LOGISTICS REPORT (LOGREP)*BACKGROUND

1. In the past Logistic Situation Reports (SITREP) have been exchanged between a number of Field Missions and LCS/FOD. This type of report has proven to be a useful operational tool particularly for trouble shooting, as it has helped to highlight critical support issues and has provided a medium for feed back in a regular and systematic manner. In order to eliminate confusion with other reports it was recently decided to rename the report to Logistics Report (LOGREP). At the same time it was decided that a revised instruction would be issued.

2. The principal objectives of the LOGREP are as follows:

- a. To establish a standard report in format, actioning and frequency of communication between a Field Mission and the Logistic and Communications Section (LCS), FOD/DPKO,
- b. To provide each party a general overview on significant developments, but at the same time highlight those current requirements and potential problem areas, which may have a negative impact on the administrative and logistic support to a field mission, and
- c. To serve as a standardized management tool for following up outstanding requests, thus providing a safety net for the Field Mission and LCS/FOD which will enhance each party's capability to focus on unresolved issues requiring attention.

It is important to note that the LOGREP shall not replace routine correspondence, requests for action or any other report required by the other Sections of FOD.

RESPONSIBILITIES

3. At the Field Mission: The DOA/CAO has the overall responsibility to ensure that the LOGREP is complete, comprehensive and sent to UN Headquarters in accordance with the established schedule. However, it is recommended that the DOA/CAO appoints a suitable officer to serve as the field mission's LOGREP coordinator, who will be tasked to ensure that the objectives of the LOGREP are met. This entails the monitoring of the collation of input from the mission's action entities, ensuring that replies to outstanding matters are forthcoming and obtaining inputs as necessary to cover all logistics and related matters. In field missions with military contingents it is suggested that the designated officer also liaise as appropriate with military officers such as the CLO, CEO, CSO, etc. The name and contact telephone number of the designated person and alternate should be forwarded to LCS/FOD in writing. It would also be useful for LCS/FOD to know the names and telephone numbers of the Chiefs of the various technical services of a field mission, i.e. CTO, CCO, CGS, CCEO, CPO, etc.

4. At the Logistic and Communications Section, FOD: The Chief of LCS has the overall responsibility for the LOGREPs sent to field missions. Within Logistics Operations he has appointed Logistics Operations (Log Ops) officers, who serve as the LCS LOGREP coordinators and thus, are responsible to ensure that the outgoing LOGREPs are complete, comprehensive and sent to the field missions in accordance with the established schedule. The names and contact telephone numbers of the designated Log Ops officers and alternates are communicated to the respective field missions in writing.

5. The Unit Chiefs of the functional units of LCS are responsible for the provision of responses to queries and follow-up requests from field missions and will ensure that comprehensive, up-to-date information is included in the relevant segments of the LOGREP in a timely manner.

6. The Log Ops officers ensure that the objectives of the LOGREP are met. In this function the designated officer will monitor the collation of replies to field missions for completeness, ensuring that replies to outstanding matters are forthcoming and obtaining inputs on all other logistics and related matters which are clearly outside of the responsibilities of the LCS functional units. As appropriate, Log Ops officers may visit action officers to collect or check input, before the LOGREP is submitted for clearance, transmission and filing.

PROCEDURE

7. General: The LOGREP will be exchanged at regular intervals, usually on a weekly basis and will be numbered sequentially in the following manner 1/94, 2/94, etc. The days of dispatch for LOGREPS from field missions and LCS are set. They will be jointly agreed upon between the two parties, taking into account that usually a lead time of two days is needed to prepare a comprehensive response to an incoming report. The current schedule for LOGREPS sent from field missions and the present schedule for the dispatch of LOGREPS from LCS/FOD is contained in Annex A. Changes to the established schedule will always be communicated in writing.

MSF 2963-04

8. The LOGREP is divided into functionally oriented paragraphs and comprises major paragraph and sub-paragraph headings as per the format at Annex B. The major headings are derived from the main functional support areas existing at LCS.

9. The LOGREP format must not be changed because it will then be out of agreement with preceding and succeeding LOGREPs. It should, however, be noted that the list of sub-heading is not meant to be inclusive. Additional sub-headings may be added if deemed warranted and will be assigned a sub-paragraph number in sequence.

10. At times it will become necessary that more than one subject will have to be covered under one sub-paragraph. In these cases sequentially numbered sub-sub paragraphs will be added as appropriate.

11. The LOGREP should reflect all pending issues until such time as each has been fully satisfied and so communicated to the other party. In the event that there is Nothing To Report this shall be indicated by writing "NTR".

12. Matters of priority (PRIORITY) or Immediate Operational Requirements (IOR) will be marked as such. These points will be referenced in the paragraph with heading "GENERAL" of the LOGREP and described in more detail in the applicable functional paragraph, printed in bold characters to highlight the matter. This will give managers an immediate overview of those items which are of crucial importance and require immediate attention.

13. At the Logistic and Communications Section, FOD: Log Ops officers will maintain a LOGREP file for each Mission on the LCS central server, which can be accessed through the local area network under the following drive/path: W:\WP51DOC\COMMON\LOGREP. The files will have the abbreviated Mission acronym as the file extension, i.e. LOGREP.FOR for UNPROFOR.

14. Log Ops officers will ensure that the LOGREP files will always show a copy of the most recent LOGREP at the beginning, which will be used as the working document to prepare a new LOGREP. LOGREPs sent earlier will be filed in descending order to provide historical data for reference purposes.

15. Action Officers of the functional units, LCS will enter all relevant information in the LOGREP file prior to 1200 hours on the day the LOGREP is scheduled for dispatch. They will follow the specific guidelines for accomplishing the LOGREP form, which is included in Annex C.

16. At the Field Mission: Suitable procedures for the preparation of the LOGREP will be issued by the DOA/CAO of each field mission taking into account the specific guidelines issued in this regard by Headquarters, see Annex C.

A: Field Operations Division

DATE: 18 March 1992

REFERENCE: _____

THROUGH:
S/C SE

FROM: Per Sjogren, Director
DE: Field Operations Division

SUBJECT: Revised System for Incoming Faxes from Field Missions
OBJET:

1. Due to the continuing increase in the number of operations administered by the Field Operations Division, the volume of incoming correspondence and documentation, in particular faxes, has become increasingly unmanageable. In order to ensure that such communications are received and acted upon in the most expeditious manner possible it has been decided to establish a new procedure for incoming faxes from field missions to FOD Headquarters, N.Y., on a trial basis.

2. The field missions have been instructed to send all routine faxes to a specific fax number, by subject matter, to the Director, Deputy Director, or individual Section Chiefs of FOD as indicated below:

	Fax Number
Per Sjogren, Director	963-0383
Denis Baisnel, Deputy Director	963-0383
Bjorn Johansen, Chief, Field Finance and Budget Section	963-4230
Alice Hacht, Logistics and Communications Section	963-2116
Peter Gillies, Chief Field Personnel Section	963-0644

3. All non-routine faxes will continue to be sent to the Director of FOD. The determination of what constitutes a routine fax will be the responsibility of the Heads of Administration. Likewise, Section Chiefs will assume responsibility for determining if any faxes directed to them should be called to the attention of the Director. Each Section will be responsible for assigning staff to collect and distribute faxes from their respective fax machines. Two copies should be made of each incoming fax. One should be given to the Director's Office and one should be placed in the folder located in the Pouch Room for Mr. Goulding.

4. Pending alternative arrangements, faxes and cables received from the 20th floor Telecommunications Operations Section will continue to be distributed by the Director's Office.

GUIDELINES FOR ACCOMPLISHING THE LOGREP FORM

1. The following paragraphs are intended to provide advice on the type of subjects and aspects that should be typically reported under each given heading. It should be understood that the items amplified below are not meant to be inclusive.

GENERAL

2. Subjects to be included under this heading should be those which are of general importance or interest, such as renewal, extension, expansion or additional mandate(s); Security Council, General Assembly, 5th Committee decisions etc; all types of delegation of authority matters; or other which have a major impact on the provision of adequate support to a field operation, irrespective of the fact that the responsibilities therefore rest with the Logistics and Communications Section or fall under another entity within FOD.

3. Additionally logistic support matters which are of paramount importance for achieving mandated objectives, other priorities issues and vital IOR requirements should be highlighted in outline form in this part of the report. The relevant details should be contained under the appropriate heading in one of the functional paragraphs.

4. While security matters are usually routed through the Field Personnel Section, important issues particularly relating to security equipment shall be reflected in the relevant sub-paragraph.

GENERAL SUPPORT

5. All issues that are common to the areas of support specified below shall be summarized under the heading "General Support". This applies to all international procurement matters such follow-up on requisitions raised and purchase orders or LOAs issued, status of Committee on Contracts presentations, property survey board cases, other property matters, pouch issues and all miscellaneous matters not covered under any other functional heading.

6. In consideration of the period it usually takes to complete the various standard processing steps at Headquarters, we have provided below for your guidance some reference periods beyond which a follow up request from a field mission on the status of a particular routine transaction would appear indicated:

Raising/approval of a requisition issuance of a purchase order

two weeks upon receipt six weeks after certification of a requisition

LOA	two weeks upon receipt
HQ Committee on Contracts Cases	three weeks upon receipt
Property Survey Board (SB) cases	five weeks upon receipt

7. It should be noted that the above specified time frames are of indicative nature only. They have been specified based on current processing periods for routine requests. Once additional staff and streamlined procedures are in place, we confidently hope to reduce these lead times. It should further be noted that follow-up action on requisition status can be directly undertaken through the dial-in access into FOD's Reality system. An extensive usage of this monitoring tool is strongly encouraged.

8. LCS will be advising field missions on the establishment of additional dial-in facilities. In this regard it is envisaged to provide access to the PTS Reality system, Property Survey Board Case tracking system and the HQ Committee on Contacts Case monitoring system. Detailed instructions governing these facilities will be circulated in due course.

OFFICE AUTOMATION MATTERS

9. Under the heading office automation activities, difficulties associated with the customized software products such as the REALITY programme, SUN accounts, the Transport system and other applications shall be reported upon.

SUPPLY

10. Matters to be included under the heading "Supply" are clearly delineated by the sub-headings provided.

Under the heading "Commercial Communications" issues relating to the local PTT provider(s), communications charges, etc should be elaborated upon.

INFRASTRUCTURE/ENGINEERING

14. The report on infrastructure and engineering issues shall focus on United Nations provided living accommodation (dormitories, ablutions, kitchen/diners, etc) and on working facilities such as warehouses, workshops, hangers, offices, etc, which are either UN Owned, rented by the UN or provided by the host authorities.

15. Under projects, the report shall cover relevant aspects relating to all major engineering projects either planned or ongoing. This relates to all major infrastructure construction and maintenance projects such as airfields, roads, parking grounds, bridges and other fixed, portable and mobile installations for the support of the mission. Drainage and sewage evacuation aspects including sewage treatment equipment and issues associated with construction material management shall also be included under this topic.

16. Matters relating to power supply systems either from local power grids or generators and water distribution equipment and systems including water purification and filtration equipment should be reported upon under the relevant separate sub-headings. The same applies to all matters relating to field engineering tasks and equipment such as mine clearing, perimeter and security fencing, etc.

SURFACE TRANSPORT EQUIPMENT

17. Matters relating to UN-owned (UNO) vehicles should be clearly distinguished from those owned by Contingents (COE). The remainder is self-explanatory.
