Dear Mr. Heath,

I am delighted to know from your letter dated 23 December 1966 that it is your intention to visit with us at the United Nations early in February when coming to the United States to deliver the Godkin lectures at Harvard University on 7, 8 and 9 February.

On reading your letter, I noticed that no commitment is mentioned for Monday, 6 February, and I wonder whether it would be possible for you to accept my luncheon invitation for that day. We could meet for a private talk at 13.00 hours and proceed at 13.15 to the luncheon in my private dining room on the 36th floor. If this is not possible, I shall be glad, of course, to see you on Friday, 3 February, at 17.30 hours and hope very much that after our talk you may accept a small reception which I would propose to give in your honour.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

U Thant

Tom Searcy General. PU 212 56

I am visiting the United States for a short while early in February to deliver the Godkin Lectures at Harvard on 7/8/9th February.

I will be in New York on Friday 3rd February, on my way from London to Harvard, arriving in New York at 13.40 hours. I would be most grateful for the chance to have a talk with you that afternoon, and I could be available at any time convenient to you. I was glad to have had the opportunity to talk to you during my last visit to the United States, and for my part a further discussion this time would be of the greatest value.

I do appreciate how heavily committed your programme is, but I do hope that we shall be able to meet again on that day.

Dear Secretary General,

Thank you so much for your letter of 4th January.

I am afraid that I shall be in Washington for most of Monday 6th February and so it will not be possible for me to accept your very kind invitation to luncheon on that day.

I would however be delighted to see you on Friday 3rd February at 17.30hrs, and it is most kind of you to give a small reception for me afterwards which I would be most pleased to accept.

I greatly look forward to meeting you again.

Yours sincerely
Edward Heath

The Secretary General,
The United Nations.

The Secretary General

I am so sorry that I shall now be unable to visit the United States from 3rd to 10th February. As you know, Prime Minister Kosygin is visiting the United Kingdom at that time, and as I am sure you will understand, I really ought to be here as host for the discussions which the Opposition will have with him. I had hoped to be able to arrange the timetable to fit in with my American visit, but I am afraid that in the end it was impossible.

I shall now be delivering the Godkin Lectures at Harvard from 21st to 23rd March, but I am afraid that it looks as though it will be a very hurried visit and I fear I will not have time for anything else.

I greatly regret not being able to come in February. I was so looking forward to our meeting and I do apologise for missing the reception. I hope we can meet again at some other time in the near future.

*With very good wishes
Yours sincerely*

Edward Heath

The Secretary General.
