Dear Mr. Secretary-General,

I have received with great pleasure the photograph taken during my farewell call on Your Excellency at the end of my tour of duty as Permanent Representative of Mauritius to the United Nations.

I seize this opportunity to commend you for your tireless efforts and your devotion and commitment in the advancement of the human society in all its aspects. It was indeed a wonderful experience working at the United Nations. Your enlightened leadership and vision was undoubtedly a great source of inspiration.

I wish you Mr. Secretary-General and your dedicated team continued success in the years ahead.

Please accept, Mr. Secretary-General, the assurances of my highest consideration.
