Subject: Invitation to join Google for dinner in Cannes, June 22nd 2016.

Dear Secretary General,

On behalf of Google, I'm honored to invite you to a small dinner I will be hosting during the Cannes Lions festival.

The dinner will take place on Wednesday 22nd June from 7.30pm at Google's outpost on the beach on the Croisette and I would be honoured if you could join me.

The official invitation is attached here for you reference but my team will be in touch with your office to ensure you have all the information you need. I can also always be reached through my assistant, Kate Ross - katedh@google.com at any time.

I very much hope you can make it.

Yours sincerely,

Yonca
