

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

10 November 2009

Dear Mr. Volcker,

I would like to thank you for sending me your report "Reform of the International Monetary Fund". As the world continues to respond to the effects of the international economic and financial crisis, your efforts to put forth recommendations to optimize the effectiveness of one of the critical pillars of the global financial system are most appreciated.

I hope that your report will be widely read and will inform the ongoing discussions to reform our key economic and financial institutions.

Yours sincerely,

BAN Ki-moon

Mr. Paul A. Volcker
