Excellency,

I wish to thank you for your letter dated 15 July 2015 and for your continued support in the fight against Ebola.

The International Ebola Recovery Conference, in partnership with the African Union, the European Union, the World Bank and the African Development Bank, generated over US$3.4 billion in pledges to support Guinea, Liberia and Sierra Leone in their efforts to recover from the devastating effects of Ebola.

The success of the Conference was, indeed, a momentous occasion for the international community. The funds mobilized by the Conference will help the Ebola-affected countries jump-start a robust recovery process over the next two years.

I am grateful for the generous contribution of the Government of Australia to the international response to the Ebola outbreak and to the World Health Organization.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

His Excellency
Mr. Tony Abbott
Prime Minister of the Commonwealth of Australia
Canberra

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

31 July 2015

Excellency,

I wish to thank you for your letter dated 16 June 2015 and for your continued support in the fight against Ebola.

The International Ebola Recovery Conference, in partnership with the African Union, the European Union, the World Bank and the African Development Bank, generated over US$3.4 billion in pledges to support Guinea, Liberia and Sierra Leone in their efforts to recover from the devastating effects of Ebola.

The success of the conference was, indeed, a momentous occasion for the international community. The funds mobilized by the Conference will help the Ebola-affected countries jump-start a robust recovery process over the next two years.

I am grateful for the generous contribution of the Government of the Republic of Azerbaijan to the United Nations system in support of Ebola recovery efforts.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.
