H.E.Mr. Eliasson

I would like to express to you my sincere gratitude for your correspondence dated 12 February 2013, which I received upon my return from mission few days ago.

I am very touched by your kind words in regard firstly, to the book on "la gouvernance en révolution(s)", which I share with you and secondly, to my article in the said book on the topic of the challenges of pluralism in international Human Right Law.

Further to our short conversation after the consultations in the Security Council on 30 January 2013 on "Rule of Law", I am in contact with your office for an appointment. It is my sincere hope to have the unique privilege, in spite of your heavy schedule, to meet with you so as to share further views on my article, and also learn more from you about the challenges of Rule of Law.

I also have had the opportunity to met Mr. Edric Selous at another meeting on Rule of Law and I am very impressed by all the efforts of his Unit to make Rule of Law become a reality.

I look forward to meeting with you soon.

Best regards.

Koffi Kumelio A. Afande
