12 April 2010

Your Excellency,

I would like to inform you that, as of 26 April 2010, the NATO Civilian Liaison Officer, Ms. Eirini Lemos-Maniati, will assume her duties in New York to reinforce our liaison presence, in addition to the Military Liaison Officer, Colonel Paul van der Heiden. She will be temporarily located at the German Mission to the United Nations (Lemos-Maniati.eirini@hq.nato.int).

Ms. Eirini Lemos-Maniati will be responsible for further reinforcing liaison between our two Secretariats and facilitate mutual transparency on all relevant issues. She will provide advice on developing and implementing co-operation between the two institutions, including facilitating efforts to implement the Joint Declaration on UN-NATO Secretariat Co-operation.

In closing, let me extend to you and to all UN staff our sincere appreciation for having so generously facilitated NATO's liaison activities in recent years. I, as well as NATO's two liaison officers, look forward to continuing fruitful co-operation between our two organisations in the years to come.

I will appreciate if you can communicate this to the relevant departments.

I look forward to seeing you again in the near future.

Yours sincerely,

Anders Fogh Rasmussen

His Excellency
