The Permanent Mission of the Republic of Croatia to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Secretary-General of the United Nations and has the honor to inform of the CRO UNESCO exhibition to be held from 10 to 14 January 2011 at the General Assembly Delegates' Entrance exhibition area.

The CRO UNESCO exhibition is a project of promotion of 14 Croatian cultural sites from the UNESCO World Heritage List and the Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity, in order to promote Croatian art, culture and humanities in the United Nations, thereby fostering intercultural dialogue and exchange.

This multi-disciplinary exhibition is designed as a week-long cultural event encompassing i) an exhibition of children artwork related to the Croatian cultural heritage from the children's educational workshops "Croatian Heritage from UNESCO List", ii) a presentation of the Croatian Lacemaking (Hvar, Pag and Lepoglava lace) and iii) a mixed media presentation of 14 Croatian sites from the UNESCO World Heritage List and the Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity: Old City of Dubrovnik; Historical Complex of Split with the Palace of Diocletian; The Cathedral of St. James in Šibenik; Episcopal Complex of the Euphrasian Basilica in the Historic Centre of Poreč; Historic City of Trogir; Stari Grad Plain; Plitvice Lakes National Park; Two-part playing and singing on the Istrian scale; Annual carnival bell ringers' pageant from the Kastav area; Lacemaking in Croatia; Spring procession of Ljelje/Kraljice (queens) from Gorjani; Traditional manufacturing of children's wooden toys in Hrvatsko Zagorje; Procession Za Krizen ("following the cross") on the island of Hvar and The festivity of St. Blaise, the patron of Dubrovnik.

The Permanent Mission of the Republic of Croatia to the United Nations has the honor to invite the Secretary-General of the United Nations to the opening of the CRO UNESCO exhibition on Monday, 10 January 2011 at 6.00 p.m. at the General Assembly Delegates' Entrance exhibition area.

The Permanent Mission of the Republic of Croatia to the United Nations avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Secretary-General of the United Nations the assurances of its highest consideration.
