Dear General Büyükanit,

Thank you very much for your kind invitation to the second International Symposium on "Global Terrorism and International Cooperation", to be held in Ankara on 10 and 11 March 2008.

While I am honoured by this invitation and would have liked to participate, it is with great regret that I am unable to accept due to prior commitments which prevent me from traveling to Turkey on the proposed dates.

I very much appreciate your understanding and send my best wishes for a most successful event.

Yours sincerely,

Asha-Rose Migiro

~~Dear~~ Mr. Myrino,

The Centre of Excellence Defence Against Terrorism (COE-DAT), which was inaugurated in Ankara on 28 June 2005 under the auspices of the Turkish General Staff, is organizing the 2nd International Symposium on "Global Terrorism and International Cooperation" to be held in Ankara on 10-11 March 2008. The first Symposium, which was held on 23-24 March 2006, provided a venue for hundreds of senior participants including Heads of States, Prime Ministers, Ministers, Chiefs of General Staff, university professors, and senior representatives from the media.

H.E. Hamid Karzai, President of Afghanistan and General Peter Pace, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, USA delivered keynote speeches during the first Symposium.

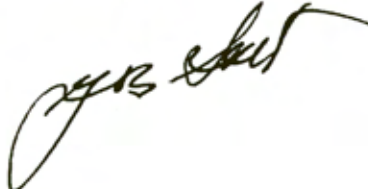

The level of participation in the 2nd International Symposium will be similar. Distinguished people, who are all experts in their respective fields such as policy, diplomacy, military and science, are kindly invited to take part in this event as speakers or delegates.

The aim of the Symposium is to provide a forum in which representatives from various nations and international organizations can present their views. In this regard, the objectives of the Symposium are to create a platform to identify:

- views on various approaches to the definition of "terrorism" and "terrorist";
- divergences in the perception of the threat posed by terrorism;
- ways and means to increase cooperation among nations to effectively deal with the terrorism predicament,
- ways and means for further incorporating regional and international organizations in the fight against terrorism.

It will be a pleasure for us to see you among our distinguished guests participating in the Symposium. Attached you will find the Symposium Programme and required attendance form which needs to be returned to the COE-DAT for confirmation purposes.

Please do not hesitate to contact us, should you have any questions regarding administrative matters. Though the Symposium language will be English, simultaneous translation in major languages will also be provided during the sessions.

Sincerely yours
