

THE DEPUTY SECRETARY-GENERAL

16 July 2015

Simona
Dear Madam Ambassador,

Thank you for your letter of 10 July 2015, on the final day of your term as Permanent Representative of Romania to the United Nations. It was with sorrow that we saw a valued and dynamic colleague leave the ranks of Ambassadors here in New York.

However, it is a great pleasure to now welcome you to the United Nations family in a different capacity, as you take up your post as Representative of the Secretary-General and Director of the United Nations Office in Belgrade.

Let me thank you for the spirit of cooperation and warmth which you extended to me and my colleagues as Permanent Representative. I have no doubt that your talents and capacities will be a great asset to the United Nations and the people we are to serve.

I extend best wishes to you as you assume your new important duties.

Yours sincerely,

Jan Eliasson

Her Excellency

Dear Deputy Secretary-General,

Despite the inherent nostalgic tone, I have the honour to inform you that this is the last day of my post as Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary, Permanent Representative of Romania to the United Nations. I am ready and thrilled to become your colleague as I will soon take up my new assignment as Representative of the Secretary General and Director of the United Nations Office in Belgrade, after seven amazing and unforgettable years in New York.

Thank you for your wonderful friendship, cooperation and support, so readily and generously extended to me during my tenure! Let me express my sincere hope that I can count on you through my new professional journey.*
