Dear Patrick and Yvette,

Just a heads up as we understand there has be a lot of follow up on this invitation from the organisers. The SG's travel schedule does not allow him to attend this Summit. We have consulted DPA who has recommended that Mr. Feltman represent the SG.

We will prepare the letter confirming Mr. Feltman as the SG's representative for review and signature on Wednesday.

Best,
Mary

Dear Secretary General,

I am pleased to invite you to attend a meeting of NATO Heads of State and Government with International Security Assistance Force (ISAF) contributing partners on 4 September in Wales.

This meeting will start with a public ceremony to honour the service and sacrifices of those who have participated in the ISAF mission. The meeting will reflect upon the tremendous contributions of Allies, partners and the broader international community in Afghanistan. It will also be a critical opportunity to discuss our engagement with Afghanistan after the ISAF mission concludes at the end of this year.

I expect that leaders will focus on three areas, with regard to NATO's post-2014 commitment in Afghanistan. Firstly, the non-combat train, advise and assist Resolute Support mission to continue building the capacity of the Afghan National Security Forces. Secondly, financial commitments to sustain the Afghan National Security Forces. Thirdly, NATO's Enduring Partnership with Afghanistan.

The Wales Summit will demonstrate that the efforts made by NATO, our partners, and the international community have helped Afghanistan to take responsibility for its own future, but that it does not and will not stand alone. In that regard, I take this opportunity to thank you for the tireless efforts of UN representatives and their close cooperation with the Alliance.

The international community, including Afghanistan's neighbours, have a continued and vital role to ensure the security and stability of Afghanistan and the region. Therefore, I am also inviting the leaders of Japan, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Pakistan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, Uzbekistan, the EU and the World Bank, as well as the President of Afghanistan to this important meeting.

I very much look forward to welcoming you in Wales.

Yours sincerely,

Anders Fogh Rasmussen
