THE DEPUTY SECRETARY-GENERAL

15 July 2009

Dear Mr. Dieng,

I write to thank you for your letter of 25 June 2009, inviting me to attend the UNICTR Job Fair, scheduled to take place from 17 to 21 August in Arusha.

While I am honoured by this invitation and would have very much liked to participate, it is with deep regret that I must decline due to prior commitments.

I hope you will work with the recently established Outreach Section of OHRM in sharing the information available in your compendium of ICTR staff. I also encourage your staff to apply for vacancies on the United Nations Galaxy website.

I appreciate your understanding and send my best wishes for a successful event.

Yours sincerely,

Asha-Rose Migiro

Dear Dr. Migiro,

Subject: Invitation to UNICTR Job Fair on 17 - 21 August 2009

As you may know, the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda (ICTR) is at the final stage of its mandate. Indeed, after groundbreaking work in the area of international criminal and humanitarian law, it will, soon, gradually, wind up its work as it has been required to complete its trials at the first instance by end of December 2010.

The situation poses challenges to the management and staff of the Tribunal, among others and not the least, the fate of a reservoir of over one thousand talented, well trained and experienced staff members. To help address the situation faced by its most precious asset, and as an integral part of its completion strategy, ICTR Management has decided to organize a job fair, a premier in the annals of the United Nations, to give its separated staff, the opportunity to market, display and show case to your organization as well as to other potential employers, especially invited to Arusha for the occasion, their professionalism, skills and experience.

It is in this context that I have the honour and pleasure to invite you or your representative(s) to the Headquarters of the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda, Arusha, Tanzania, to attend the Job Fair scheduled to take place from 17 to 21 August 2009. The ICTR would like to count, once again, on your understanding, personal involvement and staunch support to facilitate the smooth operation of its completion strategy, particularly in the area of securing new employment for its staff, with a special emphasis on the over 350 Tanzanian Nationals.

To facilitate the review of staff to be separated, ICTR has herewith provided to all invited organizations, an electronic address to a compendium of ICTR staff members and their e-Fact sheets, summarizing their core qualifications, skills and experience, which I believe, will meet your expectations. Details of the candidates' background, qualifications and experience can be obtained through Galaxy, or directly through ICTR on request.

The e-Fact sheet is categorized by occupational groups which include, but not limited to the following: administration and programme management specialists, human resources, finance, humanitarian and social affairs, translators and interpreters, legal affairs, jurists and attorneys, political science, public information, protocol specialists, etc.

Arusha, our duty station, is a wonderful and hospitable city and its region has been endowed with some of the most beautiful sceneries of the world, including the breathtaking snow and height of Kilimanjaro Mountain and the largest concentrations of wild animals (Serengeti and Ngorongoro) in the world. You may wish to seize this opportunity to undertake a quick safari to one of these places.

Thank you for your kind attention.
