

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

13 July 2007

Dear Judge Lattanzi,

I have the pleasure to inform you that, in accordance with Article 13 ter, paragraph 2, of the Statute of the International Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia (the "International Tribunal"), I have decided, upon the request of the President of the International Tribunal, to appoint you, effective 2 July 2007, to serve in the International Tribunal for the trial of the Prosecutor v. Rasim Delić (Case No IT-04-83) which is scheduled to commence on 9 July 2007 and expected to be completed within one year.

Further to a request from the President of the Tribunal, dated 6 July 2007, your effective date of appointment has been amended to reflect the actual date that you took up your functions as an ad litem Judge in the case against Rasim Delić. The effective date of your appointment to the aforementioned case will therefore be 2 July 2007, to coincide with the completion of your academic commitments. Please be advised that this letter supersedes the letter of appointment dated 25 June 2007.

I should recall that, in accordance with paragraph 1 (a) of Article 13 quater of the Statute of the International Tribunal, ad litem Judges shall, during any period in which they are appointed to serve in the Tribunal, benefit from the same terms and conditions of service, mutatis mutandis, as the permanent Judges of the International Tribunal. Pursuant to paragraph 3 of Article 13 bis of the Statute of the International Tribunal, the terms and conditions of service of permanent Judges are those of the Judges of the International Court of Justice.

1. 1/07

During such time as they may be appointed to serve in the Trial Chambers of the International Tribunal for specific trials, ad litem Judges are accordingly required to serve on a full-time basis and may not, during that time, exercise any political or administrative function or engage in any other occupation of a professional nature.

I should also like to take this opportunity to note that, as an ad litem Judge of the International Tribunal, you will be entitled only to the benefits stipulated in General Assembly resolution 55/249 of 12 April 2001 and in any subsequent relevant resolutions or decisions of the General Assembly. In accordance with General Assembly resolution 55/249, should the cumulative period of your service as an ad litem Judge of the International Tribunal amount to three years or more, that will not result in any change in your entitlements and benefits and, in particular, will not give rise to any additional entitlements or benefits other than those that already exist and which will, in such an eventuality, be extended pro-rata by virtue of the extension of service.

Please accept, Judge Lattanzi, the assurances of my highest consideration.
