Mr. Guleb

22 September 2011

Your Excellency,

I am writing to request the opportunity to meet with you during my upcoming visit to New York on 4 and 5 October to petition the General Assembly Fourth Committee regarding the situation of Western Sahara and the plight of the Saharawi people.

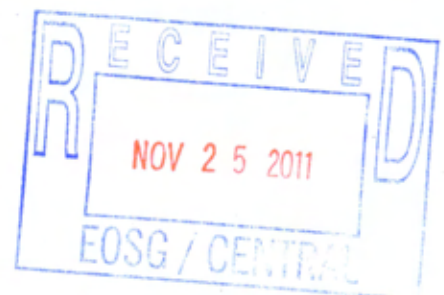

I am of course available to meet with you at your convenience, and would welcome the chance to discuss with you the opportunity provided by the recent and significant political developments in the Maghreb region to resolve the Western Sahara dispute once and for all.

I have asked the team at Independent Diplomat to coordinate my visit to New York, and respectfully request that arrangements be made through contact with Stephanie Case at +1 (212) 594-8295.

I look forward to your office's confirmation of a suitable meeting time. I have enclosed my biography for your information.

Please accept, Your Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Javier Bardem

Javier Bardem - BIOFILMOGRAPHY

Javier Bardem is the youngest member of a family of actors that has been making films since the early days of Spanish cinema. He got his start in the family business at age six when he appeared in his first feature, El Picaro (The Scoundrel). During his teenage years, he acted in several TV series, played rugby for the Spanish National Team, and toured the country with an independent theatrical group. Javier's early film role as a sexy stud in the black comedy Jamón, jamón (1992) (Ham Ham) propelled him to popularity. He refused similar subsequent roles and has gone on to win acclaim for his ability to appear almost unrecognizable from film to film. He has performed in over 25 movies and has received numerous awards, including an Oscar as Best Supporting Actor in 2007 for No Country for Old Men.
