Thanks, Samir.

This course of action makes sense.

But let me copy CdC to ask if she would be agreeable too, as the original request for a message was made by the PR of Greece to CdC.

Thank you, Josiane

Dear Josiane -- We reached out to the Office on Sport for Development and Peace (full response below). Their advice is that since this is more a national event, it would be best suited for Mr. Lemke to send a message -- while we reserve the SG's voice for international events. We would tend to agree and suggest we follow the course suggested by the sports office. Thanks, S

***

Our advice is the following: This event is a national event, organised by the national Greek Olympic Academy, in collaboration with Greek schools, and certainly has its merit. We don't know if there is any official guidelines on this or if the transmission letter by the Greek PR matters, but we tend to think that the SG should maybe not go down to the national level for greeting messages, but stay on the international level in order to preserve its special value. Special Adviser Mr Lemke has also been invited to this event but cannot attend either due to previous commitments. We would therefore suggest that the suggested greeting message could come from him. If that is agreeable, we will start working on a draft. Please let us know about the next steps and the correspondence/reply letter from the SG.

The PR just called.

1. An invitation is on its way for April 11 in Greece. An event linked to the Olympics "Dove of Peace". I already told him that there is no chance SG can make it. They would appreciate a message.
2. The PR would like to host a dinner for SG and Mrs. Ban before the end of their EU Presidency including all EU Ambassadors. He's offering dates between June 5 and June 20. We should indicate SG's preference. The Ambassador wanted to highlight that this is to honour SG and his hard work with a "social opportunity".

Pls follow-up.

Your Excellency,

✓ The Hellenic Olympic Academy (HOA) organizes on the 11th of April 2014 at the Panathenaikon Stadium of Athens, where the first contemporary Olympic Games took place, a special ceremony named the "Dove of Peace", to honor the idea of Peace within the framework of its activities for the promotion of Olympic Education and the Olympic values to the students of all the Greek schools.

In this event, where more than 40.000 students will participate, a white dove will be formed, using recycled paper, sized 30 X 100 meters, the biggest up to date according to the Guinness World Records, promoting in the most emphatic way the message of World Peace.

We all know the efforts you make, yourself Your Excellency, and the United Nations as an international institution, in order to preserve this supreme good all over the world. We would like to strengthen your efforts by sending the message of the "Dove of Peace".

✓ Your Excellency, although I fully comprehend that your obligations must be enormous, especially these days, when the war threats are surrounding the globe, please allow me to extend to you an official invitation to this celebration.

In case that prior engagements, do not allow you to be present at this event, it would also be the highest honor for the Hellenic Olympic Academy and a loud message to all the youth of our country if you wished to send us a short message to read at the beginning of the event.

Hoping that our effort will have your attention,

Sincerely yours,
