In these circumstances, I should be grateful if you would, in future occasions, add DeWalt to your list of recipients.

In the present instance, do not trouble as I am passing him my second copy.

Yours,

AGENDA COMMITTEE OF THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL

PRELIMINARY MEETING OF WEDNESDAY, 26 MAY 1948

The following letter sent to the President of the Economic and Social Council by the Secretary General of the Permanent Delegation of New Zealand is circulated for information to the members of the Agenda Committee of the Council.

"25 May 1948

Dear Dr. Malik:

It is my understanding that the Agenda Committee of the Economic and Social Council, with the unanimous agreement of all its members and after consultation with several other Members of the Council, has decided to hold a preliminary meeting on 26 May 1948.

I take it that the usefulness of this preliminary meeting is to permit an exchange of views on problems raised by the Seventh Session of the Economic and Social Council and its heavy agenda, in order that the Committee may find it possible, before its meeting scheduled for 15 and 16 July 1948 at Geneva, to consider in advance the various points on which it will have to make recommendations to the Council at that time.

With this in mind, I venture to suggest that in respect of the agenda of the Seventh Session, we might consider the following :

- (a) have a single plenary discussion on all items which are not referred directly to committees or which are not dealt with individually and finally in plenary debate ; after this discussion refer to appropriate committees all items which prove to need detailed examination ;
- (b) list items which can be disposed of completely in plenary session ;
- (c) list items which obviously can be dealt with by committees without having to be considered in plenary ;

- (d) list items which may be dropped or postponed ;
- (e) consider setting up a small ad hoc committee on procedural items ;
- (f) commence committee sittings as early as possible in the Session so that they can work while the general plenary debate is proceeding ;
- (g) have an individual discussion on each item which is listed under (b).

It should be stressed that under the above arrangements Members of the Council, would have an opportunity for individual discussion in plenary session on each item after it has come back from committee.

With respect to the preliminary list of agenda items for the Seventh Session (Document E/787) the following division indicates a possible method of handling the agenda according to the above suggestions :
