REFERENCE:

12 October 2010

Excellency,

I have the honour to refer to your letter dated 16 August 2010, regarding the launch of the United Nations Academic Impact initiative.

I am pleased to inform you that the official launch will take place at the United Nations Headquarters on 18 and 19 November 2010.

We greatly appreciate the proposal by the Permanent Mission of China to organize a special orchestral performance in the General Assembly Hall on the evening of 19 November, as the concluding event of the official launch. The availability of the General Assembly Hall for this concert has been confirmed by the Department of General Assembly and Conference Management. Preparations for the concert may begin in the Hall on the evening of 18 November.

The Advocacy and Special Events team, within the Department of Public Information, will continue to coordinate arrangements for the performance, in consultation with Facilities Management Services of the Department of Management.

For further information, your office may wish to contact the focal point for the concert, Ms. Einat Temkin, at temkin@un.org or +1 917 367 584.

We thank you again for your kind support of the Academic Impact initiative.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Vijay Nambiar
Chef de Cabinet

His Excellency
Mr. Li Baodong
Permanent Representative of the People's Republic of China to the United Nations

Dear Alexandra,

As discussed, attached please find a draft response to the Mission of China. I apologize for any formatting or protocol lapses, as I am not sure which format Mr. Nambiar would like.

Hope this is helpful. As I will be on leave from 6 Sept - 20 Sept, please contact my colleagues Edita Zulic or Kristi Nee, both copied here, for further assistance on the AI concert.

Best,
Einat

Dear Einat,

I am glad everything worked out well at the end.

I called you just now but was unable to reach you. Mr. Nambiar would like to formally respond to the Mission of China. I would thus be grateful if a draft response can be prepared for his review and signature.

With thanks in advance,

Best,

Alexandra

Dear Jaya,

The Permanent Mission of China has written to Mr. Nambiar to confirm that they will indeed sponsor the concert for the launching of the above ceremony. They have thus now requested requesting the SG to coordinate with relevant departments of the UN to ensure that the concert can be held during the evening of 19 November as suggested by the SG initially. EOSG has indicated that DPI coordinates so as to ensure the latter. (I attach the letter for ease of reference)

I would be grateful if you could let me know who in DPI the Chinese mission should be in touch with so that we can communicate this formally to them. I would appreciate receiving a response to the latter by latest noon Friday 27 August 2010
