8 August 2007

Excellency,

Further to our telephone conversation, I am writing to convey to you my best wishes for the forthcoming sixty-second session of the General Assembly to be opened in September.

I am fully aware of your highly busy schedule in the month of September. Allow me to suggest therefore that we try to arrange a meeting between us around mid-October 2007 in New York. I earnestly look forward to meeting you in person to exchange views regarding reinvigoration of your mission of good offices.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.
