✓ Weekly Report of Significant Events for the Department of Field Support
9 – 13 January 2012

During the week,

ASG Banbury visited MINUSTAH to represent DFS and DPKO at the memorial service that honored those who lost their lives during the earthquake. During the memorial service he read a statement on behalf of the Secretary-General. Following the memorial service, ASG Banbury visited field sites and discussed mission support issues with mission leadership.

The Field Personnel Division of the Department (FPD) worked closely with the Office of Human Resources Management (OHRM) to finalize the survey of UN staff on mobility, due to be launched by next week.
