Dear Deputy Secretary-General:

I would like to formally invite you to speak at our upcoming Ethics for Development side event, organized by the Permanent Mission of Panama to the United Nations, in coordination with other Member States.

As the global community embarks in the Sustainable Development Goals agenda for the next 15 years, the event aims to set the stage to ensure that ethics remains at the core of the agenda's implementation.

In connection with this event, we are honoured for your participation during the opening ceremony. This activity is open to all Member States and will be held on Wednesday, January 13th at the United Nations Headquarters in New York from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm. We have confirmed participation from the speakers, and envision the agenda as follows:

I. Mr. Jan Eliasson, Deputy Secretary-General, will open the conversation

II. Panel

- H.E. Oh Joon, Ambassador, Permanent Representative of the Republic of Korea and President of ECOSOC
- Dr. Cobus DeSwardt, Managing Director, Transparency International
- Dr. Bernardo Kliksberg, academic, co-author (with Amartya Sen) of "People First"
- A private sector representative

III. Participant dialogue

IV. Mr. Mogens Lykketoft, President of the General Assembly, will deliver closing remarks

A more detailed concept note and agenda will follow in the coming days.

Please accept, Mr. Eliasson, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Laura E. Flores H.
Ambassador, Permanent Representative

Mr. Jan Eliasson
Deputy Secretary-General
United Nations
