19 November, 2013

His Excellency
Ban Ki-moon
Secretary General
United Nations

Excellency,

Re: Formal Closing Ceremony of the Special Court for Sierra Leone

I have the honor to refer to the Agreement between the Government of Sierra Leone and the United Nations on the establishment of a Special Court for Sierra Leone (SCSL) and the Statute of the SCSL.

As you know, the SCSL was established to bring to justice those who bear the greatest responsibility for crimes committed in the territory of Sierra Leone since 30 November 1996. With the delivery of the final judgement in the Charles Taylor case on 26 September 2013, the SCSL has successfully completed all major cases stemming from its mandate.

In light of the above, the Government of Sierra Leone will host a formal closing ceremony of the SCSL on 2 December 2013. I have the honor to invite you to the closing ceremony which will take place at the State House. His Excellency, Ernest Bai Koroma, President of the Republic of Sierra Leone will deliver the Keynote address. I would be grateful if you could deliver a statement on behalf of the United Nations. This event will highlight our joint commitment, through the establishment of the Special Court, to fight against impunity for the atrocities committed in Sierra Leone during the decade-long armed conflict in the 1990s.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for the United Nations' excellent cooperation with the Government of Sierra Leone and its invaluable support to the Leone.

Sincerely,

Arrow A. Bockarie
