EXECUTIVE OFFICE
OF THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

Dear Mr. Secretary-General:

Thank you for your kind invitation for me and another executive to participate in the Climate Summit and your invitation to me to attend the United Nations Private Sector Forum Luncheon to be held on September 23, 2014 at United Nations Headquarters in New York.

It is a great privilege to be included. I am however very disappointed to have to decline given previous commitments.

Climate change and our response to it is indeed a defining issue of our time. Your initiative to bring together leaders from Government, private sector and civil society to talk about the ways and means to scale up actions and commitments is a very welcome one, and one to be applauded.

I wish you every success for this important gathering. I will be very interested to take part in any future follow-up summits for which you make plans.

Yours sincerely,
