Your Excellency United Nations Secretary General Ban Ki-moon,

Please accept my personal gratitude for your work and great contribution as a General Secretary of United Nations and for the award that you receive today from Friends of Europe, our collaborator.

It is my privilege to address to you with this letter, given the chance provided by The Friends of Europe to invite us to participate at the meeting On the road to Paris 2015: Towards a new climate deal in Brussels on the 3rd of April.

Allow me, your Excellency, to use this opportunity and take the high privilege to invite you to accept y Spiru Haret University doctor honoris cause award for your outstanding contribution in the field of culture, education and human rights respect and climate change defeat. Once our invitation accepted, the event will take place according to your agenda of travelling in Europe and in Romania.

Spiru Haret University (<http://www.spiruharet.ro/en/welcome.html>), the biggest private university in Romania that offers a unique lifetime experience to those who seek to be accomplished and authentic specialists and leaders. Our mission is to educate and guide our students towards the fulfillment of their entire potential in life. Spiru Haret University (USH) provides all the academic rigor and lustiness one should expect from an outstanding program of education. United in creativity and exigency we are oriented to excellence in both education and scientific research.

Our University has numerous collaborations with other Romanian and international universities and very good connections with business and media communities making an aim from serving Society for the best. With 24 faculties in different modern campuses in 6 cities, with over 100 lecture theatres and more than 500 seminar and laboratories rooms, with libraries hosting more than 150.000 volumes and 6000 computers, a strong Blackboard platform for E-Learning, centers and departments for learning languages, sciences education, international recognized journals, a publishing house, television and radio national broadcasting, dormitories, stadium and outdoor sport grounds, all for the use of our 15,000 students, USH develops educational programs in Romanian and/or English in wide range of fields from which I remember here: •International Relations and European Studies, •Business administration, •Sociology, •Administrative Sciences, •Architecture, •Accounting, •Law, •Economics and International Business, •Sports, •Finance, •Geography, •Informatics, •Kinetotherapy, •Languages & Literatures, •Management, •Marketing, •Mathematics, •Veterinary Medicine, •Psychology, •Communication Sciences, •Educational Science, •Theatre-Performing Arts.

Spiru Haret University of which logo is Education for Life is committed to excellence and aims to grow/mentor/form competent, entrepreneurial, internationally oriented, socially responsible specialists, globally thinking managers and leaders who can master tomorrow's societal challenges.

USH is highly sustaining the international contribution to the world society through several partnership agreed and signed with international universities all over the world and international institutions working in the benefit of education and international community, such as: Academic Cooperation Association Bruxelles; Alliance of Central-Eastern European Universities; Alliance of Universities for Democracy; Agence Universitaire de la Francophonie; Black Sea Universities Network, Balkan Forum for Communication; European Association for ERASMUS Coordinators; European Association of Career Guidance; European University Association; EuroAsian Economic Club of Scientists Association; Euro-Mediterranean Institute of Research in Business; International Association of Universities; Magna Charta Universitatum; Magna Charta Observatory.

We are proudly members of United Nations Academic Impact, aligned in furthering the realization of United Nations principles through creative entrepreneurial educational and scientific activities in a shared culture of intellectual social responsibility.

We would highly appreciate your accept to become doctor honoris cause of our university next to other outstanding world personalities like Pope Joan Paul the Second. Your acceptance will be a great honour for the Romanian academic community for all Romanian working in different universities f the world trying to bring their contribution to progress and peace.

Thanking your for the time of lecturing this letter we assure you, Your Excellency, of our highest consideration.

With the best wishes,

A/Prof. dr. Aurelian A. Bondrea
Rector of USH Bucharest
