CWJ
PRESIDENT
PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF BANGLADESH
DHAKA

13 October 2015

Excellency,

Corlog 15-06997

I write to thank you most sincerely for your letter of condolences dated 7 August 2015.

It is with a sense of relief I share with you that, due to various disaster preparedness measures in place in our coastal areas, we could minimize the adverse effects of Cyclone Komen and ensure protection of lives and properties in general.

You would be happy to know that while reaching immediate relief assistance to our affected people, Bangladesh also extended humanitarian support to the flood-hit people in our neighbouring Myanmar. We stand ready to respond to the UN's call for support in any international emergency within our modest means.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Md. Abdul Hamid

His Excellency
Mr. Ban Ki-moon
Secretary General
