Excellency,

On behalf of the Secretary-General, I would like to thank you for your letter dated 5 September 2014, inviting him to deliver the keynote address at an event to advance the Conference on the Establishment of a Middle East Zone Free of Nuclear Weapons and All Other Weapons of Mass Destruction, to be held in New York on 3 October 2014.

The Secretary-General appreciates your kind invitation. Unfortunately, I regret to inform you that he will be unable to attend, in view of prior commitments and pressing demands already on his schedule on the said date. Nevertheless, allow me to take this opportunity to convey his best wishes for a successful event.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Note to the Deputy Secretary-General

EXECUTIVE OFFICE
OF THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

✓ INVITATION TO THE SECRETARY GENERAL TO ATTEND AN EVENT TO ADVANCE THE CONFERENCE ON A MIDDLE EAST ZONE FREE OF NUCLEAR WEAPONS AND ALL OTHER WEAPNS OF MASS DESTRUCTION

(Rel Ca Log: 14-08079)

1. I wish to refer to the letter dated 5 September 2014 from Ambassador Cabactulan, Permanent Representative of the Philippines to the United Nations, inviting the Secretary-General to deliver the keynote address at an event to advance the Conference on the Middle East zone free of nuclear weapons and all other weapons of mass destruction as agreed in the Final Document of the 2010 Review Conference of the Parties to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons (NPT). The event will be held on 03 October 2014 and is co-hosted by the Permanent Mission of the Philippines to the United Nations, the Global Security Institute and the World Evangelical Alliance.
- ✓ 2. In light of the specific role of the Secretary-General as convener of the Conference, given to him by the Final Document of the 2010 NPT Review Conference and the delicate nature of the ongoing process between the three co-sponsors of the 1995 resolution and the States of the region, it is recommended that the invitation be declined.
3. Please find attached a draft letter to that effect.

Dear Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon,

With the 2015 Review Conference of the Parties to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons (NPT) just around the corner and the convening of the Conference on the Establishment of a Middle East Zone Free of Nuclear Weapons and All Other Weapons of Mass Destruction, as agreed in the consensus Outcome Document of the 2010 NPT Review Conference, has remained uncertain, it is time that the international community – governments, non-government organizations, the academia and civil society – come together to help jump-start the very much stalled nuclear disarmament agenda.

The delayed Conference has undoubtedly and unavoidably impacted on this year's disarmament meetings in the UN including in the UN Disarmament Commission and the Third Preparatory Committee Meeting for the 2015 NPT Review Conference.

While it is our collective wish that the 2015 NPT Review Conference does not suffer the same fate as previous disarmament meetings, there is deep concern that the Conference will once again take center stage.

It is for this reason that the Permanent Mission of the Philippines to the United Nations is co-hosting an event with the Global Security Institute (GSI) and the World Evangelical Alliance (WEA) to advance the Conference on the Middle East.

On behalf of the Philippine Mission, GSI's Jonathan Granoff and WEA's Deborah Fikes, I would like to extend our invitation to you to serve as our keynote speaker for the event that is tentatively set for 03 October 2014 at the Harvard Club. Depending on your availability, however, the date and the timing – either luncheon or dinner – will be adjusted accordingly.

We sincerely hope that you could join us in this event.

With my personal regards.

Yours sincerely,
