Turin, 5th July 2007

Dear Secretary General,

I would like to thank you for your visit of our training campus on July 4th, in Turin which, according to the reaction of participants, our Staff and press articles, has been a very successful event. I can assure you that both the Staff of the campus and the participants of our training activities will cherish your visit.

I hope you had the opportunity to better appreciate the campus, which is the largest campus of the UN system and is an instrument of training for the system as a whole. Our leading approach is the organisation of training activities focused on learning. As you may know, our work supports the achievement of the UN MDGs.

Your speech and your inspiring words have led to important prospects and possibilities. One of the more significant areas to be further explored is the role of my institution, the International Training Centre in the UN reform and the achievement of the system-wide coherence as Delivering as One. From this perspective, our campus facilities, including our Training Technology Departments could certainly be beneficial to technical activities implemented by other UN agencies in favor of their own recipients.

I have also been very pleased to learn that you are coming back to Turin at the end of August for a retreat with your high-level Collaborators. Allow me to take this opportunity to invite you and your collaborators to a dinner at our Campus restaurant, one of the evenings during your stay, should you have the pleasure.

Yours faithfully

François Eyraud
