RO

The Permanent Mission of Sweden to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Executive Office of the Secretary-General and with reference to the Secretary-General's letter to H.E. Mr. Fredrik Reinfeldt, Prime Minister of Sweden, dated 21 August 2009, has the honour to convey the following response to the Secretary-General.

On behalf of Prime Minister Reinfeldt the Permanent Mission of Sweden to the United Nations has the honour to thank and accept the Secretary-General's invitation to address the opening plenary of the Summit on Climate Change that will take place at the United Nations Headquarters in New York on 22 September 2009. Prime Minister Reinfeldt has taken duly note of the request for him to speak about how developed countries can support developing countries in adapting to the adverse impacts of climate change in the context of their overall development efforts, and he accepts to do so from a global perspective. Prime Minister Reinfeldt also conveys his acceptance to attend the dinner that will take place on that evening that will be hosted by the Secretary-General.

The Permanent Mission of Sweden to the United Nations avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Executive Office of the Secretary-General the assurances of its highest consideration.
