REFERENCE:

20 October 2015

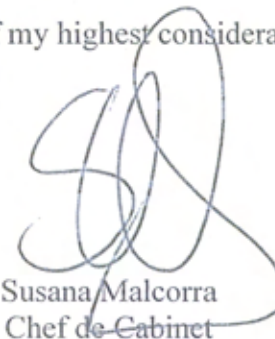

Excellency,

On behalf of the Secretary-General, I would like to thank you for your letter dated 19 August 2015, inviting him and Mrs. BAN to be the guests of honour at the Path to Peace Foundation Gala, which will be held at United Nations Headquarters on 18 November 2015.

The Secretary-General appreciates your kind invitation. Unfortunately, I regret to inform you that both he and Mrs. BAN will not be able to participate in the Gala, owing to prior commitments. However, I am pleased to inform that I will represent the Secretary-General on 18 November and deliver a message to participants on his behalf. My office will be in touch further to discuss the details of my participation.

I look forward to seeing you and other distinguished participants at the event.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Dear Mattia,

Further to our phone call on this noting that DSG has already been asked to leave the CEB and travel to New York on the afternoon of the 19th to deliver remarks on SG's behalf for World Toilet Day, DSG suggests that USG DPI attend the Path to Peace Foundation Gala on the evening of 18 November. Alternatively, if the event has particular political connections to the UAE, he suggests USG DPA.

We'd be grateful for SoSG's confirmation of the final decision.

With best wishes,

Georgia

Dear Mattia

DPI recommends that the SG should participate if he is in New York on 18 November.

Princess Haya is one of his Messengers of Peace and this gala has honoured many high-calibre figures in the past.

Please note that 18 November is also the fifth anniversary of the creation of the UN Academic Impact initiative.

DPI is in discussions with the Permanent Mission of the Republic of Korea about holding an event that day/evening to mark the UNAI milestone, and we would look to invite the SG to participate in that. We will be in touch once details of the event are finalized.

Best,
Darrin

Mr. Secretary General,

The Path to Peace Foundation, founded in New York 1991, has the objective of fostering in the international community in general and at the United Nations in particular the thoughts of the Catholic Church on questions of human rights, development and international solidarity, justice and peace. It supports the Permanent Observer Mission of the Holy See to the United Nations, acting as a vehicle of its activities in the fulfilment of the objectives of both institutions.

The Foundation holds an annual Gala Dinner, the highlight of which is the conferral of the Path to Peace Award to a dignitary for outstanding service to humanity. For your information, you will find herewith attached the Roll of Honorees of the Path to Peace Award from 1993 to 2014, from His Excellency Dr. Boutros Boutros-Ghali to Her Majesty Queen Sofia of Spain.

✓ This year the Path to Peace Foundation Gala will honor Her Royal Highness, Princess Haya Bint al Hussein of Dubai, who will be present at the Gala. It will be held in the Delegates Dining Room in the United Nations Headquarters on November 18, 2015 (cocktail starts at 6:30 pm and guests are seated at 7:15 pm).

✓ Although Your Excellency and Her Excellency, Mrs. Ban Soon-taek, will receive a formal invitation, I take this opportunity to write in the hope that you might reserve the date in your already very busy calendars, so that you will be available to come to the Gala as the guests of honor of the Foundation.

With much hope that Your Excellencies can honor us with your presence, please accept the assurances of my highest consideration.

Archbishop Bernardito Auza
