Hi Alexandra,

As I said, it's my understanding that he normally attends this particular one so the recommendation is that he should, if his schedule permits. If he is not available or SOSG feels this is not a priority then the DSG.

Thanks,

Ugo

Hello Ugo -- SG does not always attend these types of meetings. Would you let us know if this is a must? Or if someone should be designated in his behalf?

Thank you,
Alex

EXECUTIVE OFFICE
OF THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

Senior Leadership Programme: from 2 to 6 March 2015

1. The Departments of Peacekeeping Operations and Field Support are conducting a Senior Leadership Programme (SLP) at United Nations Headquarters in New York from 2 to 6 March 2015. We are writing to request the attendance of the Secretary-General at the closing ceremony.
2. The SLP provides new or recently-deployed senior mission leaders, including Special Representatives of the Secretary-General, Force Commanders and Police Commissioners, with an opportunity to learn about United Nations structures and processes while exploring the key challenges affecting contemporary United Nations peace operations.
3. Senior leaders participating in the SLP have greatly valued the opportunity to meet with the Secretary-General during the Programme. We would be very pleased if the Secretary-General is available to participate in the upcoming session.
4. We would be most grateful if the Secretary-General could deliver closing remarks, as well as take part in a photograph and reception. The event will take place in Room S-2726FC on 6 March 2015 at 4.30 p.m. The Secretary-General's involvement at the event would be limited to approximately 30 minutes.
