Seventieth session

Item 63 of the preliminary list*

Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples

Third International Decade for the Eradication of Colonialism

Report of the Secretary-General

Summary

The present report is submitted pursuant to the request of the General Assembly that the Secretary-General report at the seventieth session on the implementation of resolution 65/119 on the Third International Decade for the Eradication of Colonialism. The Secretary-General points out that attention should be focused on accomplishing concrete results with the involvement of the Special Committee, the administering Powers and the Non-Self-Governing Territories. The eradication of colonialism, in keeping with the principles of the Charter and relevant resolutions of the United Nations, is a common endeavour that requires the constructive engagement of all concerned.

The General Assembly has repeatedly called for speeding up the process of decolonization. The midpoint of the Third Decade provides a framework for taking stock of where we stand and what needs to be done to achieve the objectives of the Plan of Action.
