Dear Secretary-General Ban:

On behalf of the leadership of the IIS, I want to express my deep appreciation for your participation in the Global Insurance Forum.

First of all, we were honored to be invited to mold the third day of our annual conference into the UN – Insurance Sector Summit. To be able to convene in the ECOSOC Chamber was a thrill for our delegation of world insurance leaders. To enjoy the participation of UN leaders like Ann de la Roche, Janos Pasztor, Craig Churchill and others added immeasurably to our industry's understanding of the critical importance of working with global institutions to help promote sustainable economic development.

The highlight of the entire conference, though, was your gracious personal appearance. You showed our industry great respect by your willingness to address the group, and your remarks about the potential for the global insurance industry to make the world better in many ways was an inspirational call to action.

I have been in the insurance industry for 44 years, and I have never seen such awareness, energy and commitment from life and nonlife insurers to work with the public sector to leverage our capabilities for the good of our society. Your compliments and your exhortations had a galvanizing effect on the Forum attendees, and I extend my most sincere gratitude your efforts.

Respectfully yours,

Michael J. Morrissey
