

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

5 February 2010

Dear Madam Ambassador,

In the aftermath of the devastating earthquake in Haiti, I write to express my sorrow at the tragic death of Colonel Emilio Carlos Torres Dos Santos, a member of the Brazilian contingent of the United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti. He gave his life serving the cause of peace.

I would be grateful if you would convey to your Government and to the bereaved family my heartfelt condolences on this terrible loss, as well as my great appreciation for the contribution of Colonel Dos Santos to our work for peace in Haiti.

I would also like to thank you once again for the valuable support that the Government of Brazil continues to provide to this important peacekeeping operation and to the humanitarian response. At this time of great need, it is encouraging to know that Haiti and the United Nations can count on your solidarity and generosity.

Please accept, Madam Ambassador, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Ban Ki-moon", is written above the printed name.

BAN Ki-moon

Her Excellency
Mrs. Maria Luiza Ribeiro Viotti
Permanent Representative of Brazil
to the United Nations
New York

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

5 February 2010

Dear Madam Ambassador,

In the aftermath of the devastating earthquake in Haiti, I write to express my sorrow at the tragic death of Lieutenant Colonel Marcus Vinicius Macedo Cysneiros, a member of the Brazilian contingent of the United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti. He gave his life serving the cause of peace.

I would be grateful if you would convey to your Government and to the bereaved family my heartfelt condolences on this terrible loss, as well as my great appreciation for the contribution of Lieutenant Colonel Cysneiros to our work for peace in Haiti.

I would also like to thank you once again for the valuable support that the Government of Brazil continues to provide to this important peacekeeping operation and to the humanitarian response. At this time of great need, it is encouraging to know that Haiti and the United Nations can count on your solidarity and generosity.

Please accept, Madam Ambassador, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading 'Ban Ki-moon', is written over a printed name.
BAN Ki-moon

Her Excellency
Mrs. Maria Luiza Ribeiro Viotti
Permanent Representative of Brazil
to the United Nations
New York

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

5 February 2010

Dear Madam Ambassador,

In the aftermath of the devastating earthquake in Haiti, I write to express my sorrow at the tragic death of Major Marcio Guimarães Martins, a member of the Brazilian contingent of the United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti. He gave his life serving the cause of peace.

I would be grateful if you would convey to your Government and to the bereaved family my heartfelt condolences on this terrible loss, as well as my great appreciation for the contribution of Major Martins to our work for peace in Haiti.

I would also like to thank you once again for the valuable support that the Government of Brazil continues to provide to this important peacekeeping operation and to the humanitarian response. At this time of great need, it is encouraging to know that Haiti and the United Nations can count on your solidarity and generosity.

Please accept, Madam Ambassador, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading 'Ban Ki-moon', is written over a horizontal line. Below the signature, the name 'BAN Ki-moon' is printed in a sans-serif font.

BAN Ki-moon

Her Excellency
Mrs. Maria Luiza Ribeiro Viotti
Permanent Representative of Brazil
to the United Nations
New York

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

5 February 2010

Dear Madam Ambassador,

In the aftermath of the devastating earthquake in Haiti, I write to express my sorrow at the tragic death of Major Francisco Adolfo Vianna Martins Filho, a member of the Brazilian contingent of the United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti. He gave his life serving the cause of peace.

I would be grateful if you would convey to your Government and to the bereaved family my heartfelt condolences on this terrible loss, as well as my great appreciation for the contribution of Major Vianna Martins Filho to our work for peace in Haiti.

I would also like to thank you once again for the valuable support that the Government of Brazil continues to provide to this important peacekeeping operation and to the humanitarian response. At this time of great need, it is encouraging to know that Haiti and the United Nations can count on your solidarity and generosity.

Please accept, Madam Ambassador, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading 'Ban Ki-moon', is written over a printed name.
BAN Ki-moon

Her Excellency
Mrs. Maria Luiza Ribeiro Viotti
Permanent Representative of Brazil
to the United Nations
New York

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

5 February 2010

Dear Madam Ambassador,

In the aftermath of the devastating earthquake in Haiti, I write to express my sorrow at the tragic death of First Lieutenant Bruno Ribeiro Mário, a member of the Brazilian contingent of the United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti. He gave his life serving the cause of peace.

I would be grateful if you would convey to your Government and to the bereaved family my heartfelt condolences on this terrible loss, as well as my great appreciation for the contribution of First Lieutenant Mário to our work for peace in Haiti.

I would also like to thank you once again for the valuable support that the Government of Brazil continues to provide to this important peacekeeping operation and to the humanitarian response. At this time of great need, it is encouraging to know that Haiti and the United Nations can count on your solidarity and generosity.

Please accept, Madam Ambassador, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Ki Moon Ban".
BAN/Ki-moon

Her Excellency
Mrs. Maria Luiza Ribeiro Viotti
Permanent Representative of Brazil
to the United Nations
New York

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

5 February 2010

Dear Madam Ambassador,

In the aftermath of the devastating earthquake in Haiti, I write to express my sorrow at the tragic death of Warrant Officer Raniel Batista De Camargos, a member of the Brazilian contingent of the United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti. He gave his life serving the cause of peace.

I would be grateful if you would convey to your Government and to the bereaved family my heartfelt condolences on this terrible loss, as well as my great appreciation for the contribution of Warrant Officer De Camargos to our work for peace in Haiti.

I would also like to thank you once again for the valuable support that the Government of Brazil continues to provide to this important peacekeeping operation and to the humanitarian response. At this time of great need, it is encouraging to know that Haiti and the United Nations can count on your solidarity and generosity.

Please accept, Madam Ambassador, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading 'Ban Ki-moon', is written over a printed name.
BAN Ki-moon

Her Excellency
Mrs. Maria Luiza Ribeiro Viotti
Permanent Representative of Brazil
to the United Nations
New York

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

5 February 2010

Dear Madam Ambassador,

In the aftermath of the devastating earthquake in Haiti, I write to express my sorrow at the tragic death of Staff Sergeant Leonardo de Castro Carvalho, a member of the Brazilian contingent of the United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti. He gave his life serving the cause of peace.

I would be grateful if you would convey to your Government and to the bereaved family my heartfelt condolences on this terrible loss, as well as my great appreciation for the contribution of Staff Sergeant Carvalho to our work for peace in Haiti.

I would also like to thank you once again for the valuable support that the Government of Brazil continues to provide to this important peacekeeping operation and to the humanitarian response. At this time of great need, it is encouraging to know that Haiti and the United Nations can count on your solidarity and generosity.

Please accept, Madam Ambassador, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading 'Ki Moon Ban', is written over a printed name. The signature is fluid and cursive.
BAN/Ki-moon

Her Excellency
Mrs. Maria Luiza Ribeiro Viotti
Permanent Representative of Brazil
to the United Nations
New York

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

5 February 2010

Dear Madam Ambassador,

In the aftermath of the devastating earthquake in Haiti, I write to express my sorrow at the tragic death of Staff Sergeant Davi Ramos De Lima, a member of the Brazilian contingent of the United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti. He gave his life serving the cause of peace.

I would be grateful if you would convey to your Government and to the bereaved family my heartfelt condolences on this terrible loss, as well as my great appreciation for the contribution of Staff Sergeant De Lima to our work for peace in Haiti.

I would also like to ~~thank~~ you once again for the valuable support that the Government of Brazil continues to provide to this important peacekeeping operation and to the humanitarian response. At this time of great need, it is encouraging to know that Haiti and the United Nations can count on your solidarity and generosity.

Please accept, Madam Ambassador, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading 'Ban Ki-moon', is written over the printed name.
BAN Ki-moon

Her Excellency
Mrs. Maria Luiza Ribeiro Viotti
Permanent Representative of Brazil
to the United Nations
New York

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

5 February 2010

Dear Madam Ambassador,

In the aftermath of the devastating earthquake in Haiti, I write to express my sorrow at the tragic death of Sergeant Rodrigo de Souza Lima, a member of the Brazilian contingent of the United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti. He gave his life serving the cause of peace.

I would be grateful if you would convey to your Government and to the bereaved family my heartfelt condolences on this terrible loss, as well as my great appreciation for the contribution of Sergeant Lima to our work for peace in Haiti.

I would also like to thank you once again for the valuable support that the Government of Brazil continues to provide to this important peacekeeping operation and to the humanitarian response. At this time of great need, it is encouraging to know that Haiti and the United Nations can count on your solidarity and generosity.

Please accept, Madam Ambassador, the assurances of my highest consideration.

BAN Ki-moon

Her Excellency
Mrs. Maria Luiza Ribeiro Viotti
Permanent Representative of Brazil
to the United Nations
New York

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

5 February 2010

Dear Madam Ambassador,

In the aftermath of the devastating earthquake in Haiti, I write to express my sorrow at the tragic death of Corporal Ari Dirceu Fernandes Júnior, a member of the Brazilian contingent of the United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti. He gave his life serving the cause of peace.

I would be grateful if you would convey to your Government and to the bereaved family my heartfelt condolences on this terrible loss, as well as my great appreciation for the contribution of Corporal Júnior to our work for peace in Haiti.

I would also like to thank you once again for the valuable support that the Government of Brazil continues to provide to this important peacekeeping operation and to the humanitarian response. At this time of great need, it is encouraging to know that Haiti and the United Nations can count on your solidarity and generosity.

Please accept, Madam Ambassador, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading 'Ban Ki-moon', is written over a printed name. The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each word being capitalized and prominent.
BAN Ki-moon

Her Excellency
Mrs. Maria Luiza Ribeiro Viotti
Permanent Representative of Brazil
to the United Nations
New York

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

5 February 2010

Dear Madam Ambassador,

In the aftermath of the devastating earthquake in Haiti, I write to express my sorrow at the tragic death of Corporal Douglas Pedrotti Neckel, a member of the Brazilian contingent of the United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti. He gave his life serving the cause of peace.

I would be grateful if you would convey to your Government and to the bereaved family my heartfelt condolences on this terrible loss, as well as my great appreciation for the contribution of Corporal Neckel to our work for peace in Haiti.

I would also like to thank you once again for the valuable support that the Government of Brazil continues to provide to this important peacekeeping operation and to the humanitarian response. At this time of great need, it is encouraging to know that Haiti and the United Nations can count on your solidarity and generosity.

Please accept, Madam Ambassador, the assurances of my highest consideration.

BAN Ki-moon

Her Excellency
Mrs. Maria Luiza Ribeiro Viotti
Permanent Representative of Brazil
to the United Nations
New York

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

5 February 2010

Dear Madam Ambassador,

In the aftermath of the devastating earthquake in Haiti, I write to express my sorrow at the tragic death of Corporal Washington Luiz de Souza Seraphim, a member of the Brazilian contingent of the United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti. He gave his life serving the cause of peace.

I would be grateful if you would convey to your Government and to the bereaved family my heartfelt condolences on this terrible loss, as well as my great appreciation for the contribution of Corporal Seraphim to our work for peace in Haiti.

I would also like to thank you once again for the valuable support that the Government of Brazil continues to provide to this important peacekeeping operation and to the humanitarian response. At this time of great need, it is encouraging to know that Haiti and the United Nations can count on your solidarity and generosity.

Please accept, Madam Ambassador, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading 'Ban Ki-moon', is written over a printed name. The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name 'Ban' being particularly prominent.
BAN Ki-moon

Her Excellency
Mrs. Maria Luiza Ribeiro Viotti
Permanent Representative of Brazil
to the United Nations
New York

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

5 February 2010

Dear Madam Ambassador,

In the aftermath of the devastating earthquake in Haiti, I write to express my sorrow at the tragic death of Private Antônio José Anacleto, a member of the Brazilian contingent of the United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti. He gave his life serving the cause of peace.

I would be grateful if you would convey to your Government and to the bereaved family my heartfelt condolences on this terrible loss, as well as my great appreciation for the contribution of Private Anacleto to our work for peace in Haiti.

I would also like to thank you once again for the valuable support that the Government of Brazil continues to provide to this important peacekeeping operation and to the humanitarian response. At this time of great need, it is encouraging to know that Haiti and the United Nations can count on your solidarity and generosity.

Please accept, Madam Ambassador, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading 'Ban Ki-moon', is written over a printed name.
BAN Ki-moon

Her Excellency
Mrs. Maria Luiza Ribeiro Viotti
Permanent Representative of Brazil
to the United Nations
New York

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

5 February 2010

Dear Madam Ambassador,

In the aftermath of the devastating earthquake in Haiti, I write to express my sorrow at the tragic death of Private Rodrigo Augusto Da Silva, a member of the Brazilian contingent of the United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti. He gave his life serving the cause of peace.

I would be grateful if you would convey to your Government and to the bereaved family my heartfelt condolences on this terrible loss, as well as my great appreciation for the contribution of Private Da Silva to our work for peace in Haiti.

I would also like to thank you once again for the valuable support that the Government of Brazil continues to provide to this important peacekeeping operation and to the humanitarian response. At this time of great need, it is encouraging to know that Haiti and the United Nations can count on your solidarity and generosity.

Please accept, Madam Ambassador, the assurances of my highest consideration.

BAN Ki-moon

Her Excellency
Mrs. Maria Luiza Ribeiro Viotti
Permanent Representative of Brazil
to the United Nations
New York

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

5 February 2010

Dear Madam Ambassador,

In the aftermath of the devastating earthquake in Haiti, I write to express my sorrow at the tragic death of Private Tiago Anaya Detimermani, a member of the Brazilian contingent of the United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti. He gave his life serving the cause of peace.

I would be grateful if you would convey to your Government and to the bereaved family my heartfelt condolences on this terrible loss, as well as my great appreciation for the contribution of Private Detimermani to our work for peace in Haiti.

I would also like to thank you once again for the valuable support that the Government of Brazil continues to provide to this important peacekeeping operation and to the humanitarian response. At this time of great need, it is encouraging to know that Haiti and the United Nations can count on your solidarity and generosity.

Please accept, Madam Ambassador, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading 'Ban Ki-moon', is written over a printed name. The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name 'Ban' being particularly prominent.
BAN Ki-moon

Her Excellency
Mrs. Maria Luiza Ribeiro Viotti
Permanent Representative of Brazil
to the United Nations
New York

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

5 February 2010

Dear Madam Ambassador,

In the aftermath of the devastating earthquake in Haiti, I write to express my sorrow at the tragic death of Private Felipe Gonçalves Júlio, a member of the Brazilian contingent of the United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti. He gave his life serving the cause of peace.

I would be grateful if you would convey to your Government and to the bereaved family my heartfelt condolences on this terrible loss, as well as my great appreciation for the contribution of Private Júlio to our work for peace in Haiti.

I would also like to thank you once again for the valuable support that the Government of Brazil continues to provide to this important peacekeeping operation and to the humanitarian response. At this time of great need, it is encouraging to know that Haiti and the United Nations can count on your solidarity and generosity.

Please accept, Madam Ambassador, the assurances of my highest consideration.

BAN Ki-moon

Her Excellency
Mrs. Maria Luiza Ribeiro Viotti
Permanent Representative of Brazil
to the United Nations
New York

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

5 February 2010

Dear Madam Ambassador,

In the aftermath of the devastating earthquake in Haiti, I write to express my sorrow at the tragic death of Private Kleber da Silva Santos, a member of the Brazilian contingent of the United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti. He gave his life serving the cause of peace.

I would be grateful if you would convey to your Government and to the bereaved family my heartfelt condolences on this terrible loss, as well as my great appreciation for the contribution of Private Santos to our work for peace in Haiti.

I would also like to thank you once again for the valuable support that the Government of Brazil continues to provide to this important peacekeeping operation and to the humanitarian response. At this time of great need, it is encouraging to know that Haiti and the United Nations can count on your solidarity and generosity.

Please accept, Madam Ambassador, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading 'Ban Ki-moon', is written over a printed name.
BAN Ki-moon

Her Excellency
Mrs. Maria Luiza Ribeiro Viotti
Permanent Representative of Brazil
to the United Nations
New York

17 condolence letters re Haiti Earthquake (Brazilian Military)

• Permanent Representative of Brazil

1. Colonel Emilio dos Santos
2. Lt. Col. Marcus Cysneiros
3. Major Marcio Martins
4. Major Vianna Martins Filho
5. First Lt. Bruno Mário
6. Warrant Officer Raniel De Camargos
7. Staff Sergeant Leonardo Carvalho
8. Staff Sergeant Davi De Lima
9. Sergeant Rodrigo Lima
10. Corporal Ari Júnior
11. Corporal Douglas Neckel
12. Corporal Washington Seraphim
13. Private Antônio Anacleto
14. Private Da Silva
15. Private Detimermani
16. Private Felipe Júlio
17. Private Santos

Drafted by: DPKO

Read by: ai

Reviewed by: AC

Authorised by: LT

LT

5 February 2010

10-01253