

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

10 March 2015

Dear Ms. Carlsson,

I am writing to express my gratitude for your support and dedication to the Sustainable Energy for All (SE4All) initiative, as well as to the energy agenda as a whole.

Since its inception in 2011, the initiative has moved from its concept phase to being fully operational. We have witnessed unprecedented interest in and commitment to SE4All and sustainable energy during this period, and we owe much of this to the dedicated support of your Government.

Together, we have created a strong foundation on which to build. I look forward to continuing our cooperation with the Government of Sweden. I also hope that I can count on your personal support even after your term on the Advisory Board comes to an end. In this regard, I would be delighted if you were able to attend the second annual United Nations Sustainable Energy for All Forum, which will be held from 17 to 21 May 2015 in New York.

Please allow me to again convey my most sincere appreciation for your efforts towards achieving a more sustainable world.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Senator Lobão,

I am writing to express my gratitude for your support and dedication to the Sustainable Energy for All (SE4All) initiative, as well as to the energy agenda as a whole.

Since its inception in 2011, the initiative has moved from its concept phase to being fully operational. We have witnessed unprecedented interest in and commitment to SE4All and sustainable energy during this period, and we owe much of this to your personal dedication and leadership. The support of the Government of Brazil has been a key contributing factor to our success thus far. We have seen this through the tireless work of your Government in bringing sustainable energy to the top of the international agenda, starting at the United Nations Conference on Sustainable Development in Rio de Janeiro in June 2012 and continuing in the negotiation rooms of United Nations Headquarters in New York. This has also been evident in the many impressive commitments of your Government to advancing access to sustainable energy at home and abroad. I am confident that your legacy will serve as an inspiration to other stakeholders.

Together, we have created a strong foundation on which to build. I sincerely hope that we can continue to rely on the Government of Brazil as we move forward. I also hope that I can count on your personal support even after your term on the Advisory Board comes to an end. In this regard, I would be delighted if you were able to continue to participate in the annual United Nations Sustainable Energy for All Forum, which will be held from 17 to 21 May 2015 in New York.

Please allow me to again convey my most sincere appreciation for your efforts towards achieving a more sustainable world.

Dear Ms. Marton-Lefèvre,

I am writing to express my gratitude for your support and dedication to the Sustainable Energy for All (SE4All) initiative, as well as to the energy agenda as a whole.

Since its inception in 2011, the initiative has moved from its concept phase to being fully operational. We have witnessed unprecedented interest in and commitment to SE4All and sustainable energy during this period, and we owe much of this to your personal dedication and leadership. The support of the International Union for Conservation of Nature (IUCN) has been a key contributing factor to our success thus far. We have seen this through the tireless work of IUCN in bringing sustainable energy to the top of the international agenda. This has also been evident in the many impressive commitments of IUCN to advancing efforts at the country level. I am confident that your work will serve as an inspiration to other stakeholders.

Together, we have created a strong foundation on which to build. I hope that we can continue to rely on the commitment of IUCN as we move forward. I also hope that I can count on your personal support even after your term on the Advisory Board comes to an end. In this regard, I would be delighted if you were able to attend the second annual United Nations Sustainable Energy for All Forum, which will be held from 17 to 21 May 2015 in New York.
