Excellency,

I would like to thank you for your letter dated 20 July 2012, inviting me to open the High Level Side Event on Peacebuilding and Statebuilding, to be held at United Nations Headquarters on 26 September 2012.

I would like to take this opportunity to extend my best wishes for a successful and productive meeting.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Subject: URGENT For Advice of PU: For Further Coordination: Advice on Representation and Draft Response: HL Side Event on Peace building and State building at_NY, 26 September 2012

Dear Ivan,

We spoke on this. I have copied you in the exchange of emails on this. I attach the original invitation for ease of reference

Can PU urgently advice regarding this representation. There seems to be some unsettling btw UNDP-DPKO-PBSO on the issue of representation at this event.

As usual we would benefit from the advice from the PU regarding this representation for final decision-approval of SG and CdC so we can close this chapter.

Peter

I shall clarify that I did not really agree; but I conceded. As EOSG has originally asked HL to do it. We of course would have preferred to have HC. As UNDP and UNDG are heavily engaged in G7+ countries.
But I understand that this is 11th hour; and we all need to close our principals' agenda.

Best. Mar.

Dear Guillaume and Grace,

UNDP has approached EOSG re: the representation for this event. UNDP indicates that Ms. Clark is the main UN voice on the g7+. I spoke to PBSO and they are OK with USG Ladsous representing SG at this event.

As per our request of 14 Sept, can DPKO please liaise with UNDP to coordinate on this basis before we proceed to submit final recommendation for review and approval

Thank you,

Alex

Gabinete do Primeiro Ministro

Dili, 20 July 2012

Excellency,

At the 4th High Level Forum on Aid Effectiveness in Busan last November, the g7+ group of 17 conflict affected states, in partnership with members of the international community, endorsed the “New Deal” which puts forward the first aid architecture in history specifically for countries aiming to transition from post conflict or conflict affected conditions and situations. The New Deal represents a milestone achievement for the g7+ and is a major step towards shaping international policy with peacebuilding and statebuilding at the forefront of our development needs during a critical time of nation building.

I am pleased to report that since Busan the New Deal is rapidly gaining international attention, with endorsement by 35 countries and 6 major multilateral institutions, including the United Nations Development Group. In this regard, we would like to express our gratitude to you for your continued commitment and support to establishing a new model of partnership between conflict affected countries and their development partners, as noted in your address during the recent debate of the Security Council on the report of the Peacebuilding Commission.

I now have the pleasure of inviting you to open our High Level Side Event on Peacebuilding and Statebuilding at the 67th session of the United Nations General Assembly in September. This joint g7+ initiative will take place on the 26th September and will involve Heads of State and Government from around the world, focusing on the importance of peacebuilding and statebuilding for sustainable development. I will personally be on the panel of this event in order to illustrate the experience of Timor Leste, and we believe that high level support from the United Nations will strengthen the global recognition of and support for the New Deal. We would therefore be highly honoured if you were able to open this important event. ✓

Finally, I look forward to welcoming you to Dili in August and take this opportunity to thank you for your commitment and engagement throughout your tenure on the situation in my country. ✓

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration and respect.
