Excellency,

On behalf of the Secretary-General, I would like to thank you for your letter of 28 July 2009, inviting him to address a gathering to be organized by the Permanent Mission of India on 2 October 2009 at the United Nations Headquarters, to commemorate the International Day of Non-Violence.

Regrettably, I have to inform you that the Secretary-General will be away from the Headquarters on the said date and will, therefore, be unable to attend this function. However, he has asked the Deputy Secretary-General, Ms. Asha-Rose Migiro, to represent the Organization.

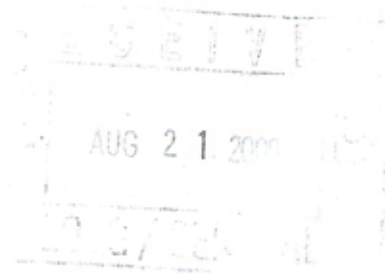

With regards to the issuance of the stamp by the UN Postal Administration, I am pleased to inform you that the Secretary-General has agreed to provide a message for the respective Souvenir Card. The text of the message will be delivered to your Office shortly.

Excellency,

You are aware that 2nd October is the International Day of Non-Violence and we are very appreciative of the activities that the UN system has been undertaking to mark this occasion since the adoption of the UNGA resolution in 2007.

2. This year, on 2nd October 2009, the Mission of India is organizing a commemorative event at the UN. I am writing to request the honour of your presence at this function and to address the gathering. We have the possibility of arranging the function either at lunch-time or between 5-7 pm and would deeply appreciate your convenience.

3. I am further happy that this year the UN Postal Administration is bringing out a stamp, which we would request you to release at the function. The issuance and cancellation of the stamp also includes a Souvenir Card that usually carries short messages. On request of the UN Postal Administration, the Minister of External Affairs of India has provided a message on Non-Violence. We would be further honoured for a message from you for this Souvenir Card.
