Dear SG Ban,

Greetings from Dar es Salaam! As we count down to the end of 2014 please allow me to commend you for your tireless endeavor in addressing the most pressing challenges of our time. Today, the United Nations remains a source of hope for many in confronting those difficulties.

Indeed, your remarkable leadership is inspiring and full of promise. The international efforts you have led in fighting, mitigating, and adopting to climate change as well as the formulation of a new post-2015 development agenda have truly bolstered the relevance of the United Nations.

We look forward to the New Year with an enduring hope that we will witness the fruition of your labor by the adoption of the sustainable development goals in September 2015, in New York, and a universal climate change agreement in December 2015, in Paris.

As I commend you, please accept Prof. Migiro's and my best wishes to you and Mrs. Ban for the upcoming holidays. Finally, please do convey my warm greetings to colleagues and friends at the Secretariat.

Yours sincerely,

H. E. Ban Ki-moon
Secretary-General
United Nations
New York
