THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

8 March 2010

Excellency,

I wish to thank you for your letter dated 16 February 2010, inviting me to witness the Inauguration Ceremony of the President-elect, which will take place in Windhoek on 21 March 2010. I would like to extend to you my warmest congratulations on your inauguration for a second term as the President of the Republic of Namibia, following the peaceful elections held in your country.

These elections represent yet another important step towards the consolidation of democracy, not only in Namibia, but in the region as a whole. The peacefulness throughout the electoral process is a testimony of the strength of the democratic values shared by the Namibian people.

It is with regret that I have to inform you that, owing to scheduling reasons, I will be unable to take part in this important event. However, I am pleased to inform you that I have asked Ms. Kari Egge, Resident Coordinator for Namibia, to represent me at the ceremony.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you all the success during your second term and I look forward to continuing to work with you as we jointly advance the global causes of democracy, peace and security, addressing climate change, development and human rights.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Your Excellency

On 27 and 28 November 2009 Namibia held its Presidential and National Assembly Elections in which the SWAPO Party and its Presidential Candidate emerged victorious.

In this connection, it is a great pleasure for me to extend an invitation to Your Excellency to witness the Inauguration Ceremony of the President-Elect which will take place in Windhoek on 21 March 2010.

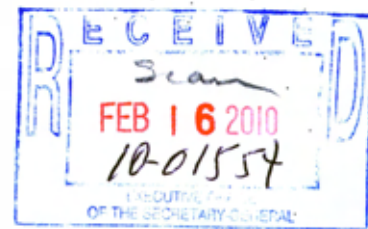

The Inauguration Ceremony coincides with Namibia's 20th Independence Anniversary and your presence at this auspicious occasion would be reflective of the important role played by the United Nations to ensure our Independence.

Please accept, Your Excellency, the assurances of my highest esteem.
