The Honorable Ban Ki-Moon
Secretary-General
United Nations
United Nations Headquarters
First Avenue at 46th Street
New York, NY 10017

Dear Mr. Secretary-General:

I want to thank you for the opportunity to meet you last Friday afternoon when we were introduced by Papua New Guinea's Ambassador Robert Aisi outside the UN dining room. As I mentioned at the time, I have known Ambassador Lee Kyu-hyung for 30 years. He and my wife, Jin Younghee, attended Seoul National University at the same time and have remained friends over the years. I am enclosing my wife's card. She is a partner in the Chicago law firm of Winston & Strawn and represents Korean companies doing business in the United States.

As a Professor at DePaul University College of Law in Chicago, we are deeply involved in international human rights work. I am enclosing a copy of a report on our International Human Rights Law Institute's activities over the past 17 years. The Institute was heavily involved in investigation allegations of war crimes in the former Yugoslavia and Professor Cherif Bassiouni was one of the drafters of the document establishing the International Criminal Court.

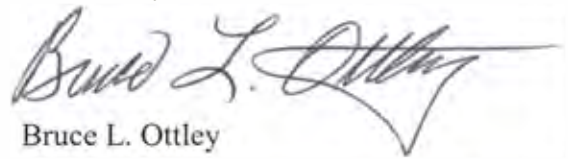

Again, I want to thank you for the opportunity to meet you. If we at DePaul can be of assistant to the UN, please contact us.
