

Note No 085)08

The Permanent Representative of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland to the United Nations presents his compliments to the Secretary-General of the United Nations and has the honour to inform you that our Prime Minister, Rt. Hon. Gordon Brown MP, will be visiting New York on 16 April 2008.

Our Prime Minister would welcome this opportunity to hold a breakfast meeting with the Secretary General.

The Government of the United Kingdom would highly appreciate your agreement to hold such a briefing.

The Permanent Representative of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland to the United Nations avails himself of this opportunity to renew to the Secretary-General of the United Nations the assurance of his highest consideration.
